

It appeared to him that his educational work, so he was, was of first importance from the point of revenue.

railway companies in the general development scheme detached. It should not be occasional concessions in stead of waiting to be arranged the railway companies' business to keep in department's work.

few railway managers or a simple examination in the State for the development of the country, and he was the companies had a section to make a study of the affairs and work out in which educational or development would have upon entirely on railway receipts.

3D OUTPUT.
to increase the agricultural Ireland to double what it is say that the farmers could incomes from the land; at the natural wealth of could be doubled and the would be shared in by keepers and traders, by and by the State.

gent need of more intensification in connection with agricultural produce. ry like Ireland the rail- provide what were known seasonal trains for con- shows and suitable pro- demonstrations could be with the exhibits conveyed to thousands of people e have an opportunity of

BREAD.
lman, in reference to a recently that rye bread is extensively, and rye s, witness said the people ked that the real thing he country could do best the world at is. tional departments well

Remedy for Nervous Breakdown, Neuritis, Indigestion, Sleeplessness, Neurasthenia, Anemia, Palpitation, Kidney Weakness, Children's Weakness, and Wasting. Specially valuable for Nursing Mothers and during the critical periods of life.

Dr Cassell's Tablets are manufactured under the supervision of skilled chemists in the most perfectly equipped laboratory of its kind in the Empire, by The Venio Drug Co. Ltd, Manufacturing Chemists, Manchester, Eng., and sold at 3/- per box, smaller size 1/3, by chemists and stores everywhere. Ask distinctly for Dr Cassell's Tablets.

DEATH OF MR. P. J. BARRY.

We regret to announce the death of Mr P J Barry, which took place in St John's Hospital on Saturday week. The deceased gentleman had been ailing for a considerable time past, and his demise was not unexpected. For a number of years he carried on business in Thomas street as a stock-broker and house agent. He was a well-known and popular citizen, and enjoyed the very high regard of a large number of clients. In private life the late Mr Barry was a singularly amiable man, possessed of a fund of anecdotes and other attributes which constituted him a general favourite with the many friends he had made during life. His demise at a comparatively early age is deeply regretted, and sincere sympathy extended to his brother in his bereavement. The funeral took place on the following Monday morning at 10 o'clock for Mount St Laurence Cemetery.

LAWN TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP.

At the Lawn Tennis Championship at Wimbledon the final of the ladies' singles was won by Miss Langlen from Mrs Mallory by 6-2 and 6-0.

MR "BOSS" CROKER'S WILL.

Under his will Mr "Boss" Croker leaves the whole of his estate to his wife. In a codicil Mr Croker directs his wife to give £1,000 to his daughter, Mrs Florence Morris. The codicil states "Mrs Morris is the only one of my children who has shown gratitude."
Mr Croker's sons are contesting the will.