

to purchase two very fast twin-screw cross-Channel mail and passenger steamers to ply between Liverpool and Douglas.

Certain particulars are given in the circular as to the tonnage, length, and other specifications of the vessels, from which, on reference to Lloyd's Register, it is found that they conform exactly to two vessels which the City of Dublin Steampacket Co has now for sale.

The vessels are the Ulster and Munster, formerly included in the Holyhead-Dun Laoghaire service. The promoters of the scheme say they hope to complete the purchase, and to commence running next May.
