AST EDITION

THE LIMERIC

MERICK CHRONICLE

18 A 19 19 19 19 19 1861

BAY NOVEMBER 4, 1922.

DE AND AGRICULTURE.

onomic future were discussed at ing meeting of the Philosophical of Trinity College last Thursday he President, Mr. John L. Woods, dress, observed that in our anxlety te Irish industries we must never at Ireland is mainly an agricultural

The wisest course, therefore, was ain Ireland's agricultural position, pointed out, the overseas countries t continue indefinitely their enorports of foodstuffs. There is thus more reason for giving all the that is possible to the agricultural

That is the aim and object of Government, as evidenced by the do of a Commission which will into various phases or aspects of re, and determine an assured basis future expansion and prosperity. dds is of dourse, quite la accord patriotic desire to support Irish But they must be profitable to noters and the nation. There are is subsidiary to agriculture which ride field for development, as well a in which we have the greatest advantage tive over producers lands. The question vital factor in our

CITY SHOOTING TRAGEDY.

Inquest Further Adjourned.

The inquest on the body of James Foley, a esiesman, residing at New Street, who was mortally wounded at the junction of Frederick Street and the Dock Road on the night of the 27th alt, was further adjourned last evening until the 10th inst at 7 p.m in the Town Hall.

Air P E O'Donnell, solr, who appeared for the next-of-kin, made the application. He had important witnesses to produce, one in particular Wm Moloney, who was in hospital suffering from a gunshet wound in the leg. He was with the deceased when he was shot, and being a material witness it was necessary that he should be present.

The Coroner (Mr.J.S. McNeice)—How long do you think we should adjourn for?

Mr O'Donnell suggested a reasonable adjournment—a fortnight. He understood that Moloney would have to be X-rayed with a view to locating the bullet.

Mr P J O'Sullivan, Solicitor, representing the military, did not consider it advisable to have a long adjournment, as it might then be difficult to have the military witnesses in attendance. He suggested an adjournment for a week.

The enquiry then stood adjourned for a week.

A Juror impressed on the Coroner the necessity of a punctual attendance, and the Coroner con-

THE HOUSING PROBLEM.

A Manifesto.

A manifesto signed by Mesers William Larkin, Con Ryan, and John Crotty, on behalf of the Limerick Workers' Housing Association. has been issued to the "men and women of Limerick," stating "the time has arrived for a definite stand on the question of their position" as tenantry in this city. The document refers in forcible terms to housing conditions in Limerick, and goes on to observe that "3,548 houses are declared certified unfit for human habitation. 18,000 human beings are existing in such abodesthey don't live in such abode, they merely fight a living death for a while, and then the dread cancer of disease has little opposition." The manifesto questions "validity of property right as it at present 'stands " that an and demands made " as tho to inquiry be ownership of the certified unfit for human habitation 'abode." The manifesto demands "homes, not debris, muck, and sewage, it TH

The Mayo peration on Aldermen J Doyle, Mrs Hennessy, A Griffin, JO Griffin, PO'

The officia Nolan (Town J R Dundo (Secretary G

Alluding
Sheet for the Mental Host called upon a person to the certificate Superintend because the suggested the English, but modute the intendent a Finance She

Alderman Mr O'Bri Irish, and t

On the matter was Committee Hospital.

THE E

Mr Uronin Blectric Ligimpelled he members he running the do anything had ascert current at generate a the compary

The Mar but pointed reduced rathands. The for the cooverplus of

The que named She Station wa of the Elec

Mr O'T