house of the Capuchin Order at B rril, Oregon.
 Amongst the friends who accompanied Father Dominic to the Adriatic was Mrs MacCurtain, widow of Lord Mayor MacCurtain, and her sister, Miss Walsh.

Other priests who embarked were Father Sheehan going to Oregon, and Father Paelao going to Los Angeles.

Father Dominic would not be interviewed, but Miss Walsh said the world knew Father Dominic was being sent out of Ireland for the political opinions he held.

DEATH OF MISS H. ROOKBY.

Very many friends have learned with very sincere regret of the death, which took place yesterday, at 5 Moyola Terrace, of Miss Helena (Nellie), youngest daughter of the late Mr William Rookby and Mrs Rookby, of this city. The young lady had been for some time ill, and her demise has occasioned great sorrow, not alone to her bereaved relatives, but to all to whom she had endeared herself by her grace and charm of manner. The funeral takes place to St Munchin's to-morrow (Wednesday) at 10 a m.

OBSEQUIES OF THE REV. S. FROST, P.P.

The funeral obsequies of the late Rev Solomon Frost, P.P, Banogue, whose death occurred at the parochial house on Friday evening, took place in the parish church yesterday morning. At 11 o'clock Office and Requiem High Mass was sung for the deceased clergyman in presence of a large congregation. The Bishop, the Most Rev Dr Hallinan, presided at the sacred ceremonies.
 The celebrant of the Mass was the Rev Fr
 Fitzgerald, P.P, Manister; deacon, Very Rev Fr Hogan, President St Munchin's College; sub-deacon, Rev Fr Carroll, C.C, Ballingarry; and master of ceremonies, Rev Fr Carroll, C.C, St John's Cathedral.

The chanters were Rev Fr Thornhill, C.C, St Michael's, and Rev Fr Kelly, C.C, St John's Cathedral.

The clergy in the choir included Very Rev
 Canon O'Driscoll, P.P, V.F; Very Rev Canon Quane, P.P, Buladen; Very Rev Canon Cnty, P.P, Dromin; Very Rev Canon Russell, P.P, Parteen; Rev Fathers Breen, P.P, Bruree; Lee,
 P.P, Killinane; O'Leary, P.P, Mungret; Curtin, P.P, Croom; Griffin, P.P, Adare; Reeves, P.P, Ballyagan; Dwane, Adm, St Michael's, and Connolly, Adm, St John's.

The interment took place in the Church grounds, the Bishop giving the final Absolution.
