

ARREARS OF RENT.

A number of weekly tenants living at Pump Lane, Carey's Road, were summoned for possession consequent on their failure to pay arrears of rent due on these tenancies.

Mr J J Dundoh, solicitor, appeared for the landlords, and in reply to the Court the tenants expressed their willingness to pay the arrears due. The cases were in the circumstances adjourned, Mr Flood remarking the extraordinary unanimity now prevailing to pay these arrears.

CO. LIMERICK FATALITY.

Bank Official's Death.

Last evening while motor cycling to his residence at Adare from Croom, where he was engaged as an accountant in the Munster and Leinster Bank, Mr Richard O. B. Fuller was accidentally run into, as the result of a collision, by a military Ford motor car at Carras Cross. He received injuries which terminated fatally at 1 o'clock this morning in the County Infirmary, Limerick, whither he was removed. Deceased was 25 years of age, and had only been married during the past fortnight. He was a native of College Road, Cork.

Mr F M Woolworth, Managing Director in this country of Woolworth's Stores, died in London early this morning.

DEATH OF LORD NORTHBOURNE.

Lord Northbourne died at his residence, Betchingham Park, near Deal to-day. He was seventy-seven.

NEW INDUSTRY IN LIMERICK.

It will be seen by advertisement that a new industry—the Shannon Paint Works—has been established in commodious premises at Edward street, Limerick. Messrs Hayes, Ryan and Co. are running the business, which includes the various accessories of the trade, manufactured on the premises, on Irish capital and with Irish labour, and it will be seen that the best quality in material and lowest prices are guaranteed by this enterprising firm.

DEATH OF MR A ENRIGHT.

The death, which has been learned with feelings of deep regret in the city, occurred after a serious illness on Thursday evening, of Mr Alphonus J Enright, Vice-Chancellor, of the clerical staff of Mr H B Alton, Estate Agent, O'Connell-street, and was a very popular citizen. He was a vocalist of considerable talent, and gave his services to entertainments organised in the city for charity. He was a member of the Michael's Dramatic Club, and also of the Mount St. Alphonus Chóif. The funeral takes place to-morrow at 3 o'clock from the City Hospital for Margaret Cemetery.

MOTOR AND DRAY IN COLLISION.

Last night a collision took place in O'Connell Avenue between a motor car and a light dray, with, fortunately, minor results. The vehicles were travelling in opposite directions, and when outside Ascut Terrace the motor, which, it is said, was not showing a light, ran into the dray, breaking the shafts but not injuring the driver or horse. The chauffeur of the motor was, however, injured by the impact, as he was hurled against the wind-screen and his face badly bruised and cut.

MILLING TRADE DISPUTE.

Inquiries in Limerick to-day show that the situation regarding the strike in the milling trade remains unchanged.

LIMERICK CITY SHRIEVALTY.

The name of a respected and influential gentleman will be proposed to fill the office of High Sheriff of the City at the quarterly statutory meeting of the Corporation on Thursday next. The gentleman in question has, it is understood, given his consent to go forward, and from what can be learned he will be placed first on the list of those selected for submission to the President of Dail Eireann. He is well known in connection with his services in adjusting local labour disputes, and will be a very popular choice.
