GERMAN REPARATIONS OFFER.

British Note in Reply.

The Press Association learns from a well informed source that the British Note in reply to the German reparations offer will be handed to Herr Sthamer, the German Ambassador in London to-morrow afternoon for transmission to Berlin. Copies of the Note will be sent to France through Lord Crewe, the British Ambassador in Paris, and to Belgium.

ALARMING TRAM ACCIDENT.

Four Lives Lost—Thirty Persons Injured.

This morning, at Charwell, between Leeds and Morley, a workmen's tram car full of passengers from Morley district to Leeds got out of control on Charwell hill, dashed down the steep gradient, left the rails at the bottom, ran into a wall, and turned over. Four men were killed and thirty were injured, many seriously.

NORTH WALL DOCKERS' STRIKE SETTLED.

The strike of dockers at the North Wall, Dublin, was settled to-day.

DEATH OF MR. C. DEVANE.

The death took place at his residence 17 Ascot Terrace this morning of Mr Cornelius Devane at a rather advanced age. The deceased gentleman was a well-known and respected trader, having carried on grocery business in William street for a number of years, previous to his retirement a few years ago. He was father of the Rev. R. Devane, S.J., Rathfarnham, Dublin, and Dr. J. Devane, the well known city practitioner, with whom and the other members of the family, sincere sympathy will be extended in their bereavement. For funeral arrangements see obituary notice.
