DEATH OF LIEUTENANT M BRENNAN.

The death, which we regret, took place on Thursday of Lieutenant Michael Brennan, National Army, in his twenty-fourth year, and after a comparatively brief illness. The deceased was third son of Mr Arthur Brennan, Meelick, and had been stationed for some time past at the Strand Barracks. He was brother of Captain Patrick Brennan, Ennis, and was a promising young officer. His death in early manhood has caused a great shock to his parents, with whom sincere sympathy is felt in their sorrow. The funeral will leave St. Mauchin's Catholic Church to-morrow at half past one summer time for Meelick Cemetery.

IF YOU HAVE PIMPLES YOUR BLOOD'S BAD.

Put blood right, and pimples go! Nothing else so good for this as Dr King's Dandelion and Quinine Pills—"famous since 1798" Dr King's Pills tone the liver and purify the blood naturally, without forcing, without cruel, new-fangled drugs. A 1s 3d box goes a long way, and M B Widdess, 55 Roche's Street; P Lyton, O'Connell Street, or any other good chemist, can supply you. Hamless, effective, time-tested, Dr King's Pills are good for Men, Women and Children of all ages. They cost little and do much—try them once!
