

a man said to be the late Mr. Alexander knew by a Secretary. His greatness of heart was known to everyone of them, and the interest he took in the Board and Chamber of Commerce was deep disaster. Personally he had learned of the disaster with great regret, and felt that it would be hard to fill the place he occupied in the city.

The Chairman said the late Sir Alexander is a model employer, and his death was a great loss to the poor, and to the various charities of a city. They all knew how he dealt with his employees, and regret every class in the community his passing away had caused very much regret.

The resolution was then declared passed in accordance with the members standing while it was being moved from the chair.

CRESCENT CHRISTMAS CARNIVAL.

Opened at Lyric Hall.

Promoted with the object of supplementing the funds initiated some time ago to instal a new organ in the Church of the Sacred Heart, the Crescent Christmas Carnival was opened last evening in Lyric Hall under favourable auspices. The carnival, which has been organised on an elaborate scale, will be continued during the week; and in the character and scope of its organisation could attract a large number of visitors, apart from the laudable objects for which it has been created. The entire of the spacious Hall has been devoted to the reunion, which includes a variety of bright and attractive amusements, as well as a number of stalls containing useful and novel goods.

On the first floor are situated the Cafe Chantant, under the presidency of Mrs. Griffin, where concerts are given at frequent intervals. The Buffet is in charge of Mrs. O'Donnell and Mr. Moriarty, and the Basket Stall of Mrs. Riordan; the second floor are situated the Novelty Stall, run by Mrs. J. Hartigan; the Country Produce stall, run by Miss M. G. McGrath; the Cigarette stall by Mrs. P. Crowe, and the Book and Toy stall by Mrs. Merrick and Miss Riordan, while a stall set apart for Maccots is in charge of Mr. P. F. Graham and Miss Haaraban.

This floor is also devoted to a variety of games such as roulette, while in the third floor the ballroom, under the presidency of Misses Gallagher and Mrs. J. Hall, who can count on a large number of patrons during the week. The music is supplied by a nicely balanced orchestra, and tasteful. The Carnival is set in a very festive decorative scheme of colours, which adds a festive appearance to the building, and having received the approval of the Vicar Capitular of the Diocese, the Right Rev. Monsignor Donnell, P.P., V.G., Rathkeale, it is not too much to hope that it will meet with generous support from the citizens.

The opening ceremony was performed by the Rev. Fr. Dillon-Kelly, S.J., in presence of a large and representative assembly. He said he had received a letter from Monsignor Donnell regretting his inability to be present, wishing the Carnival success. He desired on behalf of the Jesuit Community to return grateful thanks to the Vicar-Capitular for the great part he had taken in the Carnival, and for very material assistance he had given it. He had also to express thanks to all those who helped in organising the Carnival, and thanked it over.

CITY DROWNING FATALITY.

Inquest on Unknown Man.

An inquest was held in the Boardroom of Barrington's Hospital last evening by Mr. J. S. McNamee, City Coroner, and a jury, into the circumstances connected with the death of an unknown man, whose body was recovered from the Shannon on Saturday. Although the Civic Guard have been engaged in prosecuting enquiries into the man's identity they have so far failed to establish it, beyond the fact of a pawn-ticket bearing the name of William Ryan being found in his possession.

The evidence of Florence Walsh, a stevedore, was that on Saturday last he was attracted by shouts of a man being in the river. Without fail he threw the man a rope, which went over his head; he did not attempt to catch it, and a grapping hook was produced, but it failed to reach the deceased, who was floating face downwards. Witness subsequently sent word to the Civic Guard of the occurrence and assisted in taking the body ashore.

Sergeant Busine deposed to recovering the body from the river opposite Lansdowne Factory, assisted by other Guards and civilians. The only evidence of identification was a pawn ticket found in a purse in one of the pockets bearing the name "William Ryan." Witness made inquiries at several pawn offices in the city, but was unable to ascertain the deceased's address.

Dr. W. P. Dandos, house surgeon, Barrington's Hospital, stated he made an examination of the body, which was well developed and contained no marks of violence externally. He attributed death to asphyxia due to drowning.

A verdict of found drowned was returned.

CO. LIMERICK FARMERS' ASSOCIATION.

At a general meeting of the County Limerick Farmers' Association on Saturday, Mr. P. K. Hogan, F.D., Chairman, presided, and there was a good attendance.

In reference to a resolution from the previous meeting asking that the demand form for rates should be altered so as to show the ratepayers the amount of expenditure under each heading of public expense, the Secretary of the County Council said that a change of legislation would be necessary in order to accede to the wishes of the Association.

The Chairman said the whole matter of rate collection was requiring the attention of the Government.

The matter ended.

It was unanimously agreed that the County Council should be asked to make no further appointments, temporary or permanent, to the office of rate collector, and that in future, where a rate collector ceased to function, the rates
