Dr Hayes, who is practising in Dublin, repre- sented Limerick in the Dail since 1918. He is brother of Rev Father M Hayes, C.C. Newcasttle West, and a native of Rathale.

DEATH OF MR. JAMES DAVISON.

The death, which we announce with regret, took place suddenly yesterday morning of Mr James Davison, who had been for over forty years an assistant at Messrs McMahon, Day & Co's, chemists, O'Connell street. The deceased, it appears, was not long in the shop when he took ill and expired in a brief space of time. He was a man of very retiring and courteous disposition, and his unexpected death has caused sincere regret in the city, where he was well-known and respect- ed by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances.
