

ially by the "tourist" invasion." Colonel aghan Westropp spoke of the scenic tions of Clare and the need for prog greater railway facilities for visitors see parts. That is a matter which we assured will receive the attention of restors. In conjunction with those of West Clare Companies.

CONSECRATION OF THE MOST REV DR KEANE.

morrow the Consecration of the Most Rev episcopos, Catholic Bishop of Limerick, will take place in St John's Cathedral. The ceremonies commence at 11 o'clock, and it is expected there will be a large attendance of the nobly, the clergy and laity. Admission to cathedral will be by ticket, and seats will be reserved in the nave of the sacred edifice for the nobles, who will be represented.
 President of the Irish Free State, Mr Egan, has accepted the invitation to be present at the sacred ceremonies.
 At 11.30 o'clock in St. John's Convent School the Bishop will receive addresses and reply to the same. These will be presented by the Corporation of Limerick; the Catholics of the city and county; the Limerick County Council; the Arch-Confraternity of the Holy Family attached to the Church of St. Alphonsus; the Limerick National Teachers Association; the people of St. Patrick's, and the people of Ballyvaughan.

PRECIOUS INJURY AWARDS

Bank of Ireland Claim His Honor County Court Judge Pigot, giving his decision in the case of the Limerick branch of the Bank of Ireland, which was closed in May, 1922, and £3,256 5 3 taken by irregularities, came to the conclusion that the bank was in a position whereby the Bank of Ireland was liable for an error of £10,211 in amount stated, and his Honor awarded £3,256 5 3.

PRESENTATION TO MR D CROWE, CLONLARA.

The Limerick Press Club on Saturday night, presented Daniel Crowe, Aurorean, Park House, Clonlara, was the recipient of a handsome presentation on the occasion of his marriage. The gift was in the form of a suite of furniture with a cigarette case suitably inscribed as a gift. The President and various other members paid high tribute to Mr Crowe's excellent capacity, and his many qualities of character. The health of Mr Crowe was drunk enthusiastically, and he suitably replied.
 A highly enjoyable musical reunion followed.

ADAM PARISH CHURCH.—Morning Prayer at 11.30 o'clock; Evening Prayer at 6 o'clock.
GOSPEL HALL (Mallow-street).—Morning, 11.30 o'clock; Evening, 8 o'clock. Bible Reading on Thursday, 8 p.m.
FRIENDS' MARTINE HOUSE (O'Connell-street).— Sunday, 11 a.m.
CROSSLAND STREET HALL (36 Crossland-street).—Sunday —Children's Service, 3.30; Gospel Meeting, 8.0 p.m. Monday—Bible Reading, 8.0 p.m.

DEATH OF MISS MADGE O'DONNELL

Numerous friends in the County and City of Limerick, will regret to learn of the death of Miss Margaret Josephine (Madge) O'Donnell, youngest daughter of the late Mr Wm O'Donnell, Ballycane, Kildimo, which occurred in Dublin on Thursday last, after an illness of some duration.
 The deceased young lady was for several years an official in the Municipal School, Bolton-street, Dublin. She was very talented, and her good sense of heart and genial manner made her a great favourite with a wide circle of friends. Deep sympathy is expressed with her relatives in their bereavement. The funeral took place to-day from Limerick Railway Station for the family burial place at Castletown, and was very large and representative.
 The Directors of the Limerick Race Company, at a meeting convened last evening, passed a vote of condolence to Mr L. O'Donnell, a member of the Board, on the sad occasion of the death of his sister, Miss Mary Josephine O'Donnell.

WATCH THE ESSEX.

THE PADDOCKS, LIMERICK.

WEEKLY CATTLE & SHEEP MARKET.
 Wednesday, February 27th.—Shorter supplies; trade in general, firm and steady, at current rates. Three-year old hullocks, £16 to £20 6s; fat cows, £17 15s to £19 10s; two-year-old hullocks, £12 3 6d to £13 4s; second run, £9 10s to £10 17 6d; heifers, £12 5s to £13 5s; second run, £8 5s to £11 5s. Calves, £8 to £9 2s; second run, £4 7s to £7. Sheep, improved trade; fat heavy, £5 7s to £5 11s; small, £4 to £4 14s; hoggets (fat), £4 to £4 11s; stores, £3 5s to £3 15s.
 A good clearance.—WM B. FLETCHER, Auctioneer.

THE MUNSTER FAIR.

The Munster Fair yesterday was well supplied, but business was slow, especially for poorer cattle. Prices showed no advance on recent quotations. Three-year-old hullocks fetched from £17 to £24; two-year-olds, £10 to £14; yearlings, £7 10s to £10 10s. Three-year-old heifers, £15 to £20; two-year-olds, £9 to £11 10s; yearlings, £7 to £9. Milch cows, £20 to £26. Prime mutton, 1s 11 per lb o foot; do, beef, 2s 6s per cwt.

LIMERICK STEAMSHIP CO., LTD.

The advertisement of the Limerick Steamship Company, Ltd, usually appearing in page 3, appears in our first page this evening.

announced, and yesterday at the session a considerable number by adjourned owing to the being on the sick list, and un-court.

BADMINTON

On Thursday last the Presby-P. Y. M. A. Club as visitors for Some very keen and exciting display, each side winning six ma-Presbyterians—Messrs. Kager, Thompson, Lloyd, Mrs H D W W. Neill, M.A.; Messrs. Ro-W. O. House, B. A., and Cotter.
 P. Y. M. A.—Misses Cleland, B
 Bille, Myler, Mrs Rhodes, Sullivan, E. Cole, H. Cole, C Mal'gao.

NEWCASTLE WEST

Our Newcastle West Corre-
 The case of wines stolen from the Railway station on Sunday mo-billion in a field in the vicinhouse on Thursday. There was missing.

At a meeting of anglers held on Wednesday night, it was deto prevent illegal taking of Deaf, as poisoning in the district prevalent.

MISSION TO LE

It will be seen by advertisement in support of the Mission to preached to-morrow at moral Michael's, 2.50 at St. Mary's C at St. Munchin's. On Mon-illu'rated Lecture will Mr T. A. Bailey, Secretary for I of the Presbyterian Church, at

BROADCAST

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIMER
 DEAR SIR—Mr Bradshaw, Limerick Radio Company, has called to a letter from Mr J J issue of the 24th February, rel-While his illustration, as a him into the pleasure of a dis-Hobbins—still, Mr Bradshaw de-that, as the head of a business his available time is fully oc-practical demonstrations to suc-themselves interested.
 At some future date, Mr B ably find time to revert to a cor-attractive though it be, is m-scientific journal than the cultri-weekly. Apologising for space.—We are, dear Sir, your
 The Lim
 (100)

WATCH THE E