

ANNIVERSARY MASS AT ARBOR HILL.

President and Other Ministers Present.

The anniversary Mass for the men executed in Arbor Hill barracks, Dublin, during the 1916 rebellion was held in the barracks to-day. The Mass was followed by prayers recited at the graveside. The "Last Post" was sounded, and the troops fired volleys.

Amongst those who attended were President Cosgrave, Mr O'Higgins, Minister of Home Affairs; Mr Desmond Fitzgerald, General O'Duffy and Deputy Mulcahy.

FOOTBALL TROUBLE

Structural Damage Done.

A Hanly message states that several Stoke football club players drove yesterday afternoon to the club ground, and, it is alleged, wrenched the door off its hinges, smashed the electric lights and pictures, and caused disturbances. The trouble, it is stated, was due to the fact that some of the players are not likely to be signed on again, and others express dissatisfaction at the terms offered them.

THE BYFLEET MURDER CHARGE.

At Woking to-day, Jean Pierre Vaquier, who stands charged with the murder of Mr Jones, landlord of the Blue Anchor Hotel, Byfleet, was further remanded on the application of the police till Tuesday, May 9.

SUDDEN DEATH.

John Shanshan, aged 89 years, a native of Kildimo, drove into the city this morning in a pony trap, apparently in good health. After getting the animal shed at a veterinary surgeon's establishment, Barnfield street, he proceeded to tackle it, when he suddenly collapsed. He was attended by a Franciscan Father, and expired in a short time. The deceased was a hard-working, industrious man, and his tragic death has caused much regret to many friends in the city.

GAIETY THEATRE.

The ever-popular Charlie Chaplin will seen at the Gaiety to-night in "The Idle Class." On Monday next will be shown a fine picture featuring Viola Dana in "Love in the Dark." It will be seen by advertisement that there will be a special attraction on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, when Mrs Collins, the well known contralto, will provide a rare treat for lovers of music.
