

company is an excellent any one entered into the such go and vim that no ars passing in following a nly something out of the no end of humour. "A is certainly an antidote ne should miss seeing it, the week at the Grand t the players are Al, it here to particularise, and ce, which is as follows:— Newsom; Nixon Trippett, Hglaud, Pringle Roberts; Goulding; Mamie Scott,
 Hannah, Denny Fitzher-Bollandyne; Chalmers, inspector, W G O'Connor; as Walker aid here of the orchestral oellent, and once more the to some beautiful selections panish violinist, Senor Jose s heartily enoored.
 Flaff" will be performed at and Saturday at 3.30.

Y THEATRE.

abled at the Gaiety Theatre the fine picture featuring d in a high-class drama, ands." The film is in six star company, and the scenes orous situations. It afforded he house, as well also as two "Heroes and Husbands" Wednesday night, and is well other attraction on Thursday ey in "Shadows."

E FOR LIMERICK.

F THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE on are we going to have a ? This is the question which ll sides for some years past. ways been famed for its many matic and operative stag. Is it ething was done to enter for s to prepare for the coming f the old Theatre Royal from om the point of view of old s central position. Would not it up and provide us with a adapted for drama and opera. the public wants to get there, good as there, if the word is
 "STAGE DOOR"

JOHN OUTRAGE.

the House of Commons, said he Government are doing all that ble to bring the criminals to he population assists, they could ading the criminals.

good authority that the occurrences has no cal significance and that the Guards' inquiries will not be confined to County Clare.

Condemned by Clergy.

At both Masses in Sixmile Bridge on Sunday the callous and revolting crime was strongly condemned by the parish clergy, who trusted that the perpetrators would be speedily brought to justice. They warned the people against the dangers of opening their doors at unreasonable hours, and trusted the advice would be acted upon.

The Funeral.

The funeral of the deceased took place yesterday and was attended by a vast concourse of people from the district, where O'Mara was immensely popular with all classes, who express abhorrence at the shocking deed.

DEATH OF MRS. CATHERINE PRENDERGAST.

We regret to record the death of the above esteemed lady, which took place at her residence, Rosbrien, on Sunday morning, at an advanced age, and after a protracted illness. The deceased, who was a member of an old Limerick family, was mother of Sister Mary Teresa, Presentation Convent, Long Island, N. Y. The remains were removed to St Michael's Parochial Church on Sunday evening, where they rested overnight, and the funeral, which was of large proportions, testifying to the high esteem in which deceased and her family are held, took place yesterday to the family burial place at Mount St Lawrence Cemetery. The chief mourners were—James and John (sons). Rev Fr. Dwane, Adm., St Michael's, officiated at the graveside.

FISHERY INQUIRY AT LISTOWEL.

A sworn inquiry was held in Listowel by Messrs R H Lee and R Southern, Inspectors for the Fishery Department, Dublin, into applications received to alter the close season for the catching of salmon and trout in the Rivers Feale, Gale, and Cashen, and tributaries in No 8 Limerick District.
 All interests, including the anglers, were represented professionally, including Mr Blood-Smith, for the Limerick Board of Conservators.

COMPENSATIONS CLAIMS AT NENAGH.

Further compensation claims at Nenagh were decided by Judge Sealy, K.O., as follows:—C O Webb, Kilmore, £7,209, for contents of his house burned, and £1,600 for the house; Ceallia Griffith, Rosorea, £4,220, for the burning of Ashmere House on December 23, 1922; Mr Bantier was awarded £1,600 for the Burning of Templeberry Rectory, his property, with full reinstatement; judgment was reserved in a claim for £25,000 by Mrs Twiss for the destruction of Birdhill House.

to qualify for... in the City and County of Limerick are eligble to compete. Those who are stationed out of the city will be allowed to play on June. Notification of intention to avail of privilege must be given to the hon. secretary entrance. Names of competitors, together entrance fee of 2/6, should be forwarded to Hon. Secretary, Bank of Ireland, Limerick, by the 23rd May.

CLONMEL LIVE-WEIGHT PIG MARKET.

The price of pigs at this week's Clonmel ma-was £2 14s per cwt, live weight, the same as week. The supply on offer was rather small.

OUTRAGES AT RALAHINE.

In the early hours of Sunday morning an party of men visited the demesne lands of M Stoney Ralahine, Newmarket-on-Fergus, Co Clare, where they fired a number of Before leaving they demolished the demesne and grand gate.
 These lands recently were purchased. believed the outrage was the result of this act It is reported that one of the houses of the purchasers was fired into, but no damage bedamage to windows resulted.

WHIST DRIVE.

A Whist Drive in connection with the Stall, St Joseph's Fete, will be held in the Institute on Thursday next at eight p.m. certain to be a very enjoyable function, and should be a big attendance.

"SUMMER TIME" IN THE SCHO

The Minister for Education, in reply Secretary of the Co Wexford Farmer's Union reference to the inconvenience caused in school by "summer time," stated that the manager has power, with the approval Ministry, to adjust the hours of attendameet the parents' wishes.

MAJOR REDMOND ANNIVERSA

At a meeting held in Cruise's Hotel, B Johnson, President of the Irish Club, in th it was decided to form an organising com-for the purpose of arranging for the attend-a large Limerick contingent at the Ma-Redmond Anniversary Demonstration to at Ennis on Sunday, June 8th.

Mr M. Moriarty Tipperary branch National Bank, has been transferred on pr-to Limerick.

Miss Uoa Garvey, Ballyrotta, Ennis, is selected and approved by the Clare Agri-Committee to compete, on behalf of the in the butter-making competition at the Show.