Management of the Limerick City Home and Hospital, desire to place on record an expression of our sincere regret on the sad and untimely death of Mrs Keane, sister of our esteemed and respected colleague, Councillor James A Hennessey. That our secretary be and is hereby directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to Councillor Hennessey, with an expression of the Committee's sympathy. And that this meeting hereby adjourns as a mark of respect to the memory of the deceased lady."

TURF SUPPLY IN DANGER.

The continued wet weather has created much anxiety in West Limerick and East Kerry, where this year's supply of turf, which is almost the only fuel used in rural districts, still lies in the bogs in a sodden condition. The turf is usually "saved" before the 1st of July, and unless the weather improves very soon great damage will be done.

SHIPPING AT THE DOCKS.

Shipping at the docks and quays has been pretty brisk for the past week or ten days, as evidenced by the return recently supplied to the Harbour Board. This is decidedly encouraging and helpful in reducing the ranks of the unemployed. There are at present discharging at the docks large grain cargoes for Messrs Bannatyne and Sons, and timber for Messrs McMahon, as well as coal and other merchandise.

DEATH OF MR PATRICK KAVANAGH.

We regret to record the death of a venerable and esteemed citizen, Mr P Kavanagh, who passed away at his residence, 10 County View Terrace, yesterday, at an advanced age. He had been in failing health for some time past. For a long period of time he carried on business in the licensed trade at Mount Kennett, from which he retired a couple of years ago. He was a man of a very genial disposition, and held in high regard by all who knew him. Their sympathy is tendered to his widow and family in their bereavement. The remains will be removed at 8 o'clock this evening to St. Michael's Catholic Church. Funeral on Sunday at 1.30 p.m. to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.

EXCHANGE OF UNEMPLOYMENT BOOKS.
