MISSING MOTOR CAR.

Case of Unlawful Possession

Social court last evening, before Mr J. M. District Justice, a man named McCormack charged with being in unlawful possession of a motor car the property of James Creora. Evidence for the prosecution was that in the month of last year the Civic Guards, in a search of motor cars in the city, discovered the car which corresponded with the description reported missing by Mr Dundon. Evidence was that the car was purchased by Mr Brown, Maiden-street, Newcastle. The identity the Guards were unable to establish. The car was returned for trial on bail to the court of competent jurisdiction.

CHRISTIAN BROTHERS' SCHOOLS,

Sexton Street.

Improvements now in progress, the school will not be re-opened till next Monday, the 1st. All pupils, both Primary and Intermediate, are expected to be in attendance on the 1st. To avoid disappointment, students' admission for the first time would oblige parents to make arrangements with the Superior before the 1st for the re-opening.

To prepare boys for examinations for entry to the University and Scholarships will be conducted as follows.

GOVERNOR OF CEYLON.

Mr Charles Clifford, Governor of Nigeria, has been appointed Governor and Commander-in-Chief of Ceylon in succession to Sir W H Manning, who will retire from the services in a few months.

Conditions are very backward and far from ideal in the South as a result of the wet season.

Ki'kee Races a young lady, said to be the prettiest, rode in two of the races, and won both was loudly cheered by the crowd.

the provinces, will be produced at the Grand Central on Monday and during the week by Mr W H Edwards with a strong and talented company. There are what is described as Fourteen Sparkles in the production, in which there is an abundance of healthy humour, and the piece will be performed with full accessories of dress and costumes. There is a full chorus of "Brilliant Brilliants." Further particulars appear in advertisement. There will be matinees on Thursday and Saturday at 3.30.

INCHICORE STRIKE.

A New Development.

The strike at the Great Southern and Western Railway Company's Inchicore Works underwent a new development yesterday, when the carters employed by a number of carrying firms who serve the railway company ceased work in sympathy with the men already on strike.

FUNERAL OF MRS D. GLEESON

The funeral of the late Mrs David Gleeson, Catherine-street, took place on Sunday from St Michael's Catholic Church, and was largely attended by the citizens. The deceased was relict of the late Mr David Gleeson, for many years Superintendent at the General Post Office, and sister of Alderman P. Walshe. She was a lady beloved by a large circle of friends, who regret her demise and extend sympathy to her family and relatives in their sorrow.

The chief mourners were—Alderman P Walshe, James, Richard, and Michael Walshe (brothers); Messrs M M'Lea and L O'Neill (sons-in-law).

The clergy present were—Rev Fr Dwane, Adm. St Michael's; Rev Fr Carroll, C.C. do; Rev Fr Thornhill, C.C.; Rev Fr Hannon, C.O.; Rev Fr Treacy, C.C.; Rev Fr Fitzgerald, C.O.; Rev Fr O'Neill, O.P., Tallaght; Rev Fr O'Neill, C.O., Roscarbery; and Rev Fr Leonard, O.F.M.

DUNLOPS AT DUNGANNON.

The Dungannon 100 miles Road Race was a very successful event, and reflects no small credit on the organisers.

We understand that the Dunlop Company undertook a tyre census, and that the result was eminently satisfactory—out of a total of 54 tyres fitted, no fewer than 44 were of Dunlop manufacture. This is a percentage of 81.4, and is striking testimony to the continued popularity of the Dunlop product.

EMIGRATION TO U.S.A.

The problem of getting into the United States is now such a difficult one that any fresh information on the subject will be of personal interest to many people. Attention is therefore drawn to an advertisement in this issue from Riordan's Shipping Agency, Limerick, the well known travel experts, from which it appears that if a person wants to get to America, as far off as next April it is necessary to secure one's passage at once.

LICENCES FOR WIRELESS RECEIVING SETS.

Users of wireless receiving sets in the Dublin district have received copies of a letter issued on behalf of the Minister of Posts and Telegraphs, reminding them that a licence is required for the use of such sets.

JUNIOR GRADE EXAMINATION.

PICTURES BY WIRELESS.

Another Step Towards

Development, it is claimed, is appreciably nearer by the invention of Mr W S Stephenson, manager of the General Radio Company, Walton. They have discovered a device which will enable pictures to be transmitted by wire or wireless with almost cinematograph films.

"It makes television possible," stated, "but we do not claim to be television yet. The difficulty in television is the question of speed.

"Our device is an advance on the method at present in use, and it is to look forward to the time when home and by pressing a button, own private film show.

"Another adaptation will, of course, be the ability to see the person with whom you are conducting a telephone conversation.
