

proving of the appointment of Mr T O'Donoghue as Irish teacher at a salary of £145 a year and war bonus.

Mr P S Stundon who was recently elected Assistant Commercial teacher in the Institution, at a salary of £120 a year and war bonus, wrote resigning the position, and it was decided to re advertise the position.

A letter was read from Mr J Brockett resigning his position as part-time teacher of engineering.

The Committee decided to ask Mr Brockett to reconsider his decision.

In connection with the Inspector's report, already published, and in which he recommended that the Committee should appoint a whole-time teacher of engineering, it was decided to act on the recommendation of the Inspector.

The Committee then separated.

FUNERAL OF MR A. W. TROUSDELL.

The remains of the late Mr Alexandra W. Trousdell were removed at 10 o'clock yesterday morning from 26 Barrington street for St John's, where the interment took place. The funeral was of large proportions, and representative of the citizen. It bore fitting testimony to the respect in which the deceased was held in the city, and the sympathy felt for his family in their bereavement.

The chief mourners were—Mr Handel Trousdell (brother); Mr Frank Banalow, Kilkenny (uncle); Mr John G O'Brien and Mr Alec O'Brien (cousins).

Mr A E Goodwin, a cousin of the deceased, was unavoidably absent, being from home.

The officiating clergy were—The Archdeacon of Limerick, and Rev Chancellor Swain.

The following sent wreaths—"His devoted sister," "Handel and Jenny," "Alf and Joe," "J. J. DeCourcoy," "John and Alice," "Uncle Frank and Aunt Lizzie," Mrs Bolton and family, Mr and Miss Hadye, Mr and Mrs G. K. Farmer, Miss Ethel Eakins, the Misses Ga'braith, Miss Taylor and Mrs Stack, Mr and Mrs B. Gleeson, Mr and Mrs Nevitt Fogarty, Mr and Mrs Walsh, "A very dear friend," St John's Choir, Members of Limerick Musical Society, Staff of Goodwin and Co, Staff of Pigott and Co.

THE DROMKEEN SHOOTING.

Enquiry made to-day at Barrington's Hospital elicited that the young man, Timothy O'Donnell, Ballybrock, who was seriously wounded in the Dromkeen shooting duel, on the 5th instant, is doing as well as could be expected. Mr Digby Hurdley de Burgh is still in the County Infirmary, and is making progress towards recovery. The other man injured in the affray has not yet been discovered, despite a vigorous search by the Civic Guards.
