

y in Belfast on Thursday er, a well-known Ulster-as Editor of the "Northern later on the staff of the don, had been appointed. f the Commission are Mr airman, and Mr John stative of the Irish Free tankard. The defendant delivered milk in the city.

A fine of 20s and costs was imposed.

Mr P J O'Sullivan, solicitor, mentioned the charge against two men named Ryan and Molnerney of assaulting Sergeant O'Mahony on the night of the 4th instant. He said the defendants wished, through him, to enter a plea of guilty for the assault on the sergeant, and to say that they had made ample amends to the sergeant by way of compensation, which was accepted.

Sergeant Mahony said that was so.

Mr Flood said he was very pleased at the turn the case had taken.

Mr O'Sullivan said he should like to say that he deprecated any attack on the guard, and especially on Sergeant O'Mahony.

The case was adjourned for six months.

Two boys named William Browne and John Griffin were charged with cutting down a tree the property of the Athlunkard Boat Club and taking it away.

Mr P J O'Sullivan, solr, appeared for Browne, and pleaded guilty. The boy was respectfully concocted and was sorry for what had taken place.

The mother of the other boy also expressed regret, and Mr Flood dismissed the prosecution with a caution.

FUNERAL OF MRS M GRANT.

The remains of the late Mrs Mary Grant, Clar-view, South Circular Road, were interred in Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery to-day. At 10 30 o'clock this morning. Requiem High Mass was celebrated at St. Michael's Catholic Church for the repose of the soul of the deceased lady in presence of a large congregation. The celebrant was Rev. Fr. Carroll, O.C. St. Michael's; Deacon, Rev. Fr. Fitzpatrick, O.C., do., and Rev. Fr.
Hannon, O.C., do, sub-Deacon.
