

was the ordinary case for hearing. Court then took up the hearing of ordinary bills. Gantly sued J McCormack for £10. P J O'Sullivan, solicitor, appeared for G. The judge stated that the defendant gave him a cheque for £10, and when he went to the Bank to cash it the cheque was dishonoured. The judge gave a decree for the amount claimed less expenses. The defendant sued the Croom burial District Council for £50. Janty Bourke, solicitor, appeared for plaintiff, and the District Council were not represented. The plaintiff stated that she previously decreed the defendant for £50 and costs, but did not receive any money. The judge reserved his decision. There were a large number of other civil bills being heard which were of no public importance.

INTERCESSION FOR PEACE IN IRELAND.

At the request of the Archbishops and Bishops of Ireland and the people of the Church of Ireland on Sunday last a day of intercession for peace in Ireland. Special prayers were read in all churches. Archbishop of Dublin said that the present state of affairs, in which two Irish Governments are at each other "was unhealthy," and would lead to violent action by extremists. The desired policy was one of conciliation and peace. At the Wesley Chapel, Cork, the Rev. William Corrigan, President of the Methodist Church in Ireland, suggested that there should be a united approach to the heads of the Churches by representatives of the Churches, with a view to the settling of the boundary lines on lines that would prevent any serious conflict of interests in the future.

DEPARTURE OF NOTED VIOLINIST FROM LIMERICK.

Don Jose Soter Gomez, Court violinist to the King and Queen of Spain, and for the past seven years a musical director at the Grand Central Theatre, announces his departure from Limerick. Senor Gomez wishes it to be made known through the medium of the Press that during his pleasant stay in Limerick he made many friends, and regrets that with the time at his disposal he is unable to bid adieu to all.

MEDICAL SUCCESS.

My friends in the city and county will learn to their pleasure of the success of Miss Catherine Portley at the recent medical examination of the Royal University, Dublin. Miss Portley, who followed a distinguished course, passed her final examination, obtaining the requisite degrees. The successful student is youngest daughter of Mr Portley, Limerick Co Council clerical staff.

THE CORPORATION.

A meeting of the Corporation is convened for Friday night, a half-past seven, to consider the recommendations of Standing and Special Committees requiring confirmation, and the matters likely to come before the the vicinity of the Ennis railway station. The body was found floating in the water which had accumulated in the pit in the building, and there was a piece of blanket and a coarse bag tied round it. The body was removed to the County Home, where an inquest was held on Monday by Dr J H Counihan, Coroner. Evidence was given by the two boys and a man who found the body, and also by Guard Hayes. Dr Thomas Coghlan said the body was that of a newly-born, well nourished child. The cause of death was drowning. The jury found a verdict accordingly, and added a rider calling on the Urban Council, as the sanitary authority, to have the building put in a proper sanitary condition.

THE GRAND CENTRAL.

"The Sunbathers."

"The Sunbathers," a musical comedy revue in five scenes, drew large audiences to the Grand Central Cinema last night. The merits of the revue, its scope and attributes, made a strong appeal, and those who were present greatly enjoyed the bill of fare provided. "The Sunbathers" contains some pretty music, which is wedded to a bright and attractive little story, and the pace that presented it on this occasion gave an excellent interpretation of the parts. It is a very taking production, and last night there was not a dull moment in the presentation. It is a bracing affair, bright and vivacious, and was very cordially received. The Ballroom Dancers, Eldorado Girls, Sunbathers, Golfers, supply delightful turns, and on the whole it should, during the week, continue to attract large audiences.

THE WEATHER.

Last night experienced the first severe frost of the winter so far, and this morning, until a bright sunshine set in, the landscape presented rather a whitish appearance. The change from the dreary wet weather so long with us is welcomed by all, and it is hoped will continue.

DEATH OF MR DANIEL KELLEHER.

Many friends in the city and elsewhere will regret to learn of the death of Mr Daniel Kelleher, pig-buyer, which occurred at his residence, 55 Edward street, to-day, after a few weeks illness. He was very popular and widely known. His premature demise is deeply mourned, and sincere sympathy will be expressed with his family in their bereavement. The remains will be removed to St Michael's Catholic Church to-morrow (Wednesday) evening at 6 o'clock. Funeral on Thursday at 2 o'clock to Mount St Lawrence Cemetery.

FIRE EXTINGUISHING DEMONSTRATION.

An interesting demonstration in rapid fire extinguishing was given in the People's Park a few days ago, when the merits of the new extinguisher "Fire Snow" were demonstrated by the representative of the patentees in presence of a number of business men. As an illustration of the celerity with which "Fire Snow" worked, a tank of high-grade lighted petrol was quenched in an incredibly short space of time.

PROHIBITIONIST SURPRISE

Surprise for English

Mr Napoleon Sharman, former National Prohibition Party in London, close friend of Mr 'Pussyfoot' Johnson, deported from the United States for lack of material for his lectures. Mr Sharman recently called on the President Harding, and offered money in his possession, but for the purpose of studying. He also had his visitor's passport renewed for a month's stay in the United States.

When he arrived at Ellis Island the authorities declared that he must leave despite violent protests to the effect that British-quotas was closed, Mr Sharman was sent out and sent back before he could investigate any secrets of the industry.

The authorities also imposed a fine of a thousand dollars on the Shipping Board, which owns the ship. Mr Sharman has returned to England.

Mr 'Pussyfoot' Johnson, a Londoner, is taking up the case with the Washington authorities.
