Arising out of the decision of the Limerick Borough Council to invite Mr P McGilligan, Minister for Industry and Commerce of An Sacratat, to interview the Corporation in reference to the Shannon Power Scheme, Mr W. M Nolan, Town Clerk, has received the following communition from Mr McGilligan's Secretary:

"A CHARA-I am desired by Mr McGillgan to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 23rd ultimo.

"In reply, Mr McGilligan desires me to express his regret at not writing you sooner, and to state in explanation that he had hoped to have the contract with Mesers Siemens Schuckert signed some days ago, and that he might then have been in a position to visit Limerick. Unfortunately Mr McGilligan's hopes did not materialise, and he now fears that his other business engagements will prevent any visit to Limerick in the near future.

"Mr McGilligan trusts that your Council will realiss the importance of getting the contract with Mesers Siemen Schuckert signed as soon as possible, and that any dalay, even for the very real pleasure of meeting your Mayor and Council, would be undesirable."

DEATH OF MISS A. C. CROKER. O.B.E.

We regret to record the death of Miss Alice Georgina Croker, O.B.E., daughter of the late Captain Edward Croker, 17th Lancers, and Lady Georgina Croker, of Ballynagarde, Co Limerick, which took place at 4 St Mary's Road, Dublin, at an advanced age.

M's: Croker, who was educated privately, was a lady of much takent. She was Secretary of the Royal Irish Association for the Employment and Training of Women from 1886 until 1993, and Secretary under the Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction of the Irish Training School of Domestic Economy from 1993 until 1910.

Miss Croker was Honorary Treasurer to the Dublin Committee of the Roys I Dublin Fasiliers' Prisoners of War Fund, 1914-1919. In the many phases of women's activities on behalf of the soldiers and saliors during the was she was a notable figure in Dublin. Working with other noble women in the cause of humanity, she spared no effort in attending to the or mfort and wants of soldiers and saliors, and in alleviating the suff rings of the sick and wounded. For her efforts the Order of the British Empire was conferred upon her by his Majesty the Ring.

The funeral, which took place yesterday, was private.

GAIRTY THEATRE.

William Farnum, in "The Man Who Fights Alone," was screened to large audiences at the Galety last night. Farnum will be remembered by all picturegoers, and in this picture he plays as entirely new role, that of a hubbard who meets with a serious accident which compells him to carry on his calling of a Civil Engineer in a bath chair, but worry and the cares of his family play havon with his health, and he is put to the greatest test of all, "fighting alone" for home, health and happiness.

Baby Peggy in "Stepping Some" is entertaining, Hodge-Porgs and Paths complete a first class programme, which will be shown again to-night and on Wednesday.

Thursday next Fay Compton and Nigel Barrie will be seen in "(l.ude Daval." This picture is one of the most popular romantic dramas ever seen on the screen, and one ithat is full of genuine interest besides being well portrayed.

COLISEUM.

Bowyer-Westwood Opera Company.

This fine company, which has drawn large and highly appreciative audiences during the pastweek, opened a second week's engagement at the Coliseum last evening with the production of Balfe's beautiful opera "Rose of Castille." It was received with undoubted favour by a big house, who heartily applauded the principal, and there were several encores. The choruses were full and very tunefal, and, as menal, the orchestral music was played with fine effect.

There is again a rare feast of opera in store for the music-loving public this week, and a big measure of support should continue to be accorded the company who have established themselves as prime favourites with the local public.

This evening "Maritana" will be produced; Wednesday "Daughter of the Regiment," Thursday "Carmen"; Friday, "La Traviata"; Saturday matines (3.30), "Il Trovatore"; Saturday evening, Bohemian Girl."
