Special Weekly Dairy Market.

On Tuesday last the opening spring sale of incalf heifers and dairy cows was held at the Paddocks, with an entry of 75 heifers and 12 cows; entry much heavier than last year; class and quality also better represented. The selection on sale being above the average, including some first-class heifers with colour and quality, thick and on short legs the class that is now required; indeed around it was the best "show" seen at an opening sale. There was a particularly strong attendance of representative buyers; business was brisk and sharp, with advanced prices on 1925. Incalf heifers (best), £24 to £27 10s. Top price being obtained by Mr Maurice Power at latter figure;
