FUNERAL OF MR. AMBROSE HALL.

The funeral of the late Mr Ambrose Hall, Wellington Terrace, took place yesterday from St. Michael's Catholic Church, at the conclusion of Mass for the repose of the soul of the deceased gentleman. The cortege was very large and representative, testifying to the high esteem in which the deceased, a member of an old Limerick family, was held, and the widespread regret which is felt at the demise of a popular citizen. The blinds in the business houses on the line of route to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery, the family burial-place, were drawn while the funeral was passing.

The chief mourners were—Messrs F. A. Hall (Cardiff); A. E. Hall (Dublin), sons; J. J. Hall (Cork), brother; D. P. Joynt (Dublin), J. K. Hanley, brothers-in-law.

The clergy present were—Rev. Fr. Carroll, Aqm. St Michael's; Rev. Fr. Harty, C.C.; Rev. Fr. Thornhill, C.C.; Rev. Fr. Cowper, C.C.; Rev. Fr. O'Rielly, S.J.; Rev. Fr. Kelly, S.J.

The following are the names of some of the general public present—W. P. Sheriff (Northern Assurance Co.), P. T. Derby (Distillers Co., Ltd.), The Mayor, W. M. Nolan, Town Clerk; M. D. Shaw, E. Lloyd, Sir Vincent Nash, J. S. Gaffney, solicitor; Dean Hackett, J. A. Burke, J. J. McCarthy, J. H. Roche, M. Roche, P. E. O'Donnell, D. Edmarsh, J. O. Myles, P. Coyle, S. Kidd, W. F. Pike, P. F.
