CHRONICLE.

ED 1766)

ARY 27, 1026.

CO. LIMERICK.

subject of great co to the country. War a great deal of ided of timber, and nting is therefore a gunient to commend ited value as a means nd then as materials on are an important besides the purely w, trees, needless to es and the attractions while climatic conch influenced by a Under the direction Agricultury and Committees ultural country gratifying ears has been made the operations are siderably in the near the County Committee erest in tree-planting ery successful results. trees has been darried or several years past. heartily availed of by s, and it is calculated thousand of these trees the county during the st trees as shelter belts, i wastellands, run into c year, and this is the ch the schene is in . The Committee have 200 in connection with ne 1925-26, and £100 g in order to provide or farmers (under 100 mrers at half cost price. we learn, been already current year's scheme. inth for planting, and interest displayed by inevident that the schemes railed of Indeed, if the y supply requirements it he Deportment will have crease the answent of transititities !

COUNTY LIMERICK HUNTING TRAGEDY.

Army Major's Death.

While hunting with the County Limerick hounds near Mount Brown, Rathkeale, of the 17th instant, Major Sikes in negotiating a stiff fence was thrown heavily from his horse which was killed. Major Sikes as a result of his fall sustained severe head injuries, and in addition received a dislocation of the left shoulder, a wound in the left thigh, and a fractured rib. He was removed in an unconscious condition to Barrington's Hospital, where he succumbed to his injuries yesterday morning.

The late Major Sikes, who was 48 years of age and married, was staying at the Dunraven Arms Hotel, Adare, for the hunting season, and his death has been learned with deep regret by the members of the Co Limerick Hunt, with whom he was very popular. He resided at Hailstones, Crickledale, Wiltshire, and belonged originally to Buttevant, Co. Cork. He served through the European War, and before joining up he was engaged in tea planting in China. Major Sikes was an intrepid rider to hounds and a successful competitor at point-to-point races.

ARTS AND CRAFTS.

Exhibition at Limerick Technical Institute.

An Exhibition will be held in the Municipal Technical Institute on the 24th, 25th, and 26th March. The Institute will be open to the public on each of these evenings from 7.30 to 10 p.m. The Exhibition is being arranged to give the general public an opportunity of seeing the work of the Institute and its connection with local and national affairs. There will be interesting demonstrations and experiments in the workshop and laboratories, and a comprehensive display of students' work. An effort will be made to illustrate the facilities and equipment available for instruction in the following departments: -- Commerce, Mechanical and Motor Cor Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Telegraphy, Building Construction, Carpentry and Joinery, Cabinet-making, Plumbing, Printing, Painting and Decorating, Chemistry, Domestic Economy, Pure and Applied Art. It is hoped that the

LIMERICK COUNTY LABOUR SCHEME.

More Scenes at Council Meeting

The disorderly scenes which characterised the meeting of the bitteriek County Cullicil three weeks ago, when the labourers, by their interruptions of the proceedings, caused the adjournment of the meeting, were renewed to-day.

The meeting was called to deal with, among othe business, the question of adopting a new scheme o direct labour on the roads. Under the scheme i was proposed to dispense with foremen and surface men, and to employ gangers at 7s a day, in additio to the employment of whole time deputy count

Mr J. Bourke, Chairman, presided, and ther was a full attendance of members.

When the findings of the Road Committee were presented, Mr J. McCormack proposed the adoption, which was seconded by Mr E. L. Lloyd

Mr George O Callaghan ridiculed the Committee findings, and said the new scheme of direct labor as proposed meant the eviction of a large number of meh.

Mr M. Quinlan suggested that the matter adjourned until the Council had an opportunity examining the financial provisions of the scheme.

Mr O'Callaghan concurred, and a new proposition was made by Mr-G. C. Bennett to employ eight gaugers on the roads.

Mr O'Callaghan protested, and said—"We a anxious for peace, but we will go the whole h now." (Cheers)

A little later in the discussion the labourers or side the barrier became very demonstrative. Above the din expressions like "We will give the bullet again" could be heard, and the Chaman repeatedly called for order, which was denible. He then threatened to have the chambel cleared by the Civic Guards outside the building still he was denied a hearing. The booing a shouting became even fiereer, and when Mr O'Sullivan commenced to speak he was gree with a regular tornado of abuse, as were ot members of the Council.

Efforts to allay the storm were momenta successful, and the Chairman again threateners also the chairman again threateners.

clear the chamber.

Eventually in a quieter atmosphere
O'Callaghan proposed the rejection of the R
Committee's report, which was seconded by O'Connor, and on a poll the report was carried 15 to 13.

THE CHURCH.

Sunday Services.

St. Mary's Cathedral.—2nd Sunday in Le Holy Communion, 8 a.m. Matins and Holy munion at 11 a.m. Matins:—Processional H 540; Venite, Queeley in E; Psalm 132, Goss i One Lesson; Benedictus, Barnby in D; Lit Barnby; Anthem (Air) and refrain to Hymn Kyrie-Credo, Carrett in D; Hymn, 566; Prea the Dean. Evensong, 3.30:—Psalm 137, B hill, A minor; Service, Goss in A; Anthem and verse 1, Hymn 317; Hymns, 114 and