Fitzgibbon, S.J.

At the conclusion of the Mass the funeral left for the last resting place, and was attended by a large number of the general public, which included representatives of several of the public bodies and commercial interests in the city. It was an ample testimony to the respect in which the deceased was held in the city, and the sympathy felt for his children in their sorrow.

The chief mourners were—Miss Kitty Grant, daughter; Messrs. Lawrence Grant (Waterford) and Richard Grant (Barne, Clonmel), brothers; Mr W. Grant, nephew; Miss Pauline Grant (Waterford) and Mrs Conway (Cappoquin), nieces; Mr T. O'Shea (Cork), brother-in-law; Mrs O'Shea (Cork), Mrs Foley (Lismore), and Mrs Kenny (Cappoquin), sisters-in-law; Dr. O'Brien (Clonmel), Mr and Mrs J. O'Callaghan (Cork), Mr and Mrs J. Morris (Waterford) Mr M. O'Keeffe, do; Mr D. Murphy, do; Mr P. Kinsella, do; Mr J. Cooke and Alderman O. Dawson, do; Mr J. J. Toomey, (Limerick), and Mr J. Curran, do.

The wreaths sent were from his daughters Mabel, May and Kitty; from Larry and Lil; Willie and Pauline; J. P. O Mahony and family; Mr and Mrs P. N. Treacy, Ardavon; Mr and Mrs Tom O'Shea, Cork; Mr and Mrs Morris, Waterford; Mr and Mrs W. O'Riordan, Iona; the Staffs of W. Clarke & Son, Limerick, Waterford, and Dolphin's Barn, Dublin.

Fr. Hannan officiated at the grave.

COURSING.

Powerstown Park Meeting.

Although not so pleasant as that of the opening day, the weather was fine when coursing was resumed at Clonmel this morning. The day's programme was a big one, for it was intended to go twice through all four Stakes, which meant the running of sixty trials, and the chance of doing so was not improved by a late start.
