

of Dublin University. He is a son of the late Right Rev. Dr. Graves, a former Bishop of Limerick.

FUNERAL OF FR. O'SHAUGHNESSY, BRUFF.

Over thirty priests attended the obsequies of Rev. P. O'Shaughnessy at Bruff, and there was a large attendance of representative men, including Senator Bennett, R. O'Connell, T.D., P. Hogan, T.D., P. Clancy, T.D., and A. O'Shaughnessy, T.D. The chief mourners were:—Mr M. E. and Mrs O'Shaughnessy (parents), Messrs Cecil and Arthur (brothers), and Miss O'Shaughnessy (sister). Bruff District Court was adjourned by Mr J. H. Gallagher, D.J., as a mark of sympathy and respect.

FRANCISCAN PILGRIMAGE.

On September 26th, the Irish Franciscan pilgrimage will leave Dublin for Rome, Assisi, and Padua, and return on 16th October. The pilgrimage is in commemoration of the seventh centenary of the death of St. Francis, and the itinerary, which is subject to alteration, comprises an interesting programme. With a view to affording Franciscan Tertiaries and others who may wish to join with them, an opportunity of participating in some of the celebrations of L'anno Santo Franciscano, the Franciscan Fathers of the Irish Province have made special arrangements in connection with the pilgrimage, the fare being at the very moderate figure of £33, which includes everything.

LADY KILLED ON HUNTING FIELD.

An inquest was held last evening at Market Harborough, relating to the death of Mrs May Mason, wife of Major James Selmev Mason, company director, of Hillside, Market Harborough, who was killed whilst hunting with the Ferno Hounds yesterday morning.

Dr. Beott said that Mrs Mason's neck was fractured, and she also had a fracture of the base of the skull.

The Coroner returned a verdict of accidental death.

Miss Nestor, Patrick Street, has just returned from Markets.

the 1926 edition, as this is, has surpassed all expectations of the producer. The sweetest love story ever told, and with such well-known film stars as the Gish girls it ought to draw crowded houses. There will be a special matinee on Wednesday, March 24th, at 3.30.

COUNTY COUNCIL APPOINTMENT.

At the meeting of the Whole House Committee of the County Council, applications for the position of checker of rents and rate books, at a salary of £250 a year, were received from Mr J. O'Grady, late clerk Limerick No. 1 District Council; Mr P. J. Coll, late assistant clerk Kilmallock District Council; and Mr M. J. O'Shaughnessy, late clerk Glin District Council. In the voting Mr O'Shaughnessy was eliminated in the first poll, and in the final Mr O'Grady was declared elected by 20 votes to 11 for Mr Coll.

DEATH OF MR. THOMAS HURLEY, NEWCASTLE WEST.

The death took place at his residence, Newcastle West, on Thursday, of Mr Thos. Hurley, a well-known resident of the town and of West Limerick. The late Mr Hurley was for many years a member of the Limerick County Council, and vice-chairman of that body, as well as chairman of Newcastle West District Council and Board of Guardians. He was a very popular and intelligent public representative, and his demise has been learned with keen regret by a large circle of friends.

HARTIGANS' WEEKLY CATTLE SALE

At the Cattle Markets, Mulgrave Street, Limerick, on Saturday, 13th March—Increased entry from last week, and a good all-round demand. Choice in-calf heifers, £26 5s to £30; useful, £22 to £25 10s; ordinary, £17 15s to £21; dairy cows, £17 10s to £23. Two-year-old heifers, £12 5s to £14; bullocks, £11 12s 6d to £13 15s; second run, £9 10s to £11 5s; yearlings, £7 17s 6d to £10. Keen competition throughout, and a good clearance.—Hartigan & Co., Auctioneers.

Mrs Julia Carroll died recently at Camross, Queen's County, aged 102 years.

203/1926

Love
Llo
Sat

T was own not dep men year entr wor war rate £20
apri
ama 5s;
year £11
—M Hea
£3
Wm

Lit
Em
Ex
ing
Dr.
For wei
(
reg
Jun wit

ap

He O' for da
Ly Mi
pro

ac
Th