observed, was worth more thought than it was getting, and in this connection Mr. Hewat hopes for the expansion of shipping in the Irish Free State.

CHURCH OF IRELAND.

Limerick Mission.

Three services of unusual interest will be held in St. Mary's Cathedral next week.

On Sunday, at 11 a.m., the Rev C. W. Griffin will be admitted by the Bishop to the Priesthood. The sermon, with which the service on such occasions begins, will be preached by the Archdeacon of Limerick.

On Monday, 8 p.m., the Archbishop of Dublin will preach at a service of prayer for the coming Mission. It is many years since a Metropolitan of the Province paid a formal visit to Limerick, and the Most Rev. Dr. Gregg will get a cordial welcome from the clergy and people of this diocese.

Saturday will see the opening of the Mission. A service of preparation, when the missioner will be received, and will get his commission, will be held at 3.30 p.m.

Yesterday evening the last of the Wednesday meetings for prayer was held in the Diocesan Hall. There was a large attendance, and at the close of the meeting Mr Muspratt conducted a practice of the mission hymns. Special mission hymns have been procured, and will be supplied to the congregation. The subjects of Mr Stone's addresses have been printed on a leaflet, which will be widely distributed.

LIMERICK MAN'S DEATH IN DUBLIN.

When cleaning the offices of an income tax and super-tax expert, at 74 Grafton street, Dublin, early yesterday morning, a charwoman found the body of a man stretched on the floor. The man's name is given as Thomas M. Duggan, a native of Limerick. He had been employed for some time as an accountant at the offices, and had been in failing health for the past few weeks.

When the other members of the staff left, at 3 p.m., on Tuesday he remained behind to do some work. He was a single man, and resided at Belvedere road.

Death is believed to have been due to heart fallure

Queen Mary, who celebrated yesterday, is the daughter of t of Teck and Princess Mary o younger daughter of the first I bridge, who was the seventh George the Third. Princess Mas she then was, married, in 18 Duke of York, now King Georgueen Mary's only surviving the Marquis of Cambridge and Athlone. Queen Mary now has children—the two sons of Prand Viscount Lascelles, and daughter of the Duke and Ducl

LAUREL HILL FETE

Next Saturday's Produ

The public are reminded that day, the 29th instant, a Sale Produce, Flowers, Cakes, and be held at Kidd's Cafe, O'Contaid of the forthcoming Fete at Intending purchasers will have tunity of selecting from a fine tributions to which will be the ceived by Mrs. Jack Hartigs street.

LONDON, MIDLAND AND RAILWAY.

Resumption of Cargo

It will be seen by advertisement in this evening's issue that Midland and Scottish Railwannounce that on and from instant, full cargo services will via North Wall and Holyhead

NEW MASTER OF TIPPERA

At a meeting of Clonmel Committee, Major-General K that at a meeting of the Tipp Committee Mr W. P. Hanly at a message from Mr Filmer Sar to take over the Tipperary Holdstone Sar to take of the Coming season, and the Comaccepted the offer. (Applause)

The banks should be asha selves, said Mr P. O Siochf missioner for Leitrim, commendirty notes in circulation. The full of microbes, he declared.