CHURCH OF IRELAND.

Limerick Mission.

A special service in connection with the Limerick Mission, to be opened to-morrow (Sunday) at 11 a.m. in St. Mary's Cathedral, was held this afternoon at 3.30. The Missioner, Rev. Frank Stone, M.A., M.C., was received by the Bishop of Limerick and clergy and a numerous congregation.

DEATH OF MR. E. W. ANGLE.

We regret to record the death, which occurred in Dublin on Thursday after a long illness, of Mr Ernest William Angle, agent in that city of Messrs W. J. Shaw and Sons, bacon curers. The sad news was received in Limerick, of which he was a native, with sorrow by a wide circle of friends, to whom Mr. Angle had endeared himself by his generous disposition, sunny manner, and invariable courtesy. He was an old member of the P. Y. M. A. Tennis and Cricket Club, and also took a keen interest in football. He was an excellent business man, and was held in high regard by his firm, with which he had been connected from his youth. His premature demise cuts off an active career, and there is deep sympathy with his mother and relatives in their bereavement. The remains arrived in Limerick this afternoon for interment at St. Mary's Cathedral. The funeral was private, but many friends attended as a mark of respect. These included representatives of Messrs Shaw and the other bacon firms in the city, and other commercial interests.

Mr Malcolm Shaw and Mr Blakeney Cabbins represented the firm of Messrs. W. J. Shaw and Sons, the Directors of which and the staffs sent a beautiful wreath. Many others were sent by the family and friends.

The chief mourners were—Messrs Godfrey Angle, W. P. Angle (brothers), F. Mitchell (brother-in-law), M. Mitchell (nephew), E. W. Lee, and W. Myles.

The clergy present were—The Dean, and the Archdeacon of Limerick.

RAILWAYS AND OIL FUEL.

No Change on G. W. R. and L. N. E. R.

The Press Association was informed to-day, that it was not proposed to convert locomotives to burn oil fuel on either the G. W. R. or the L. N. E. R. In both cases, it was stated, that there was plenty of coal to carry on existing services.

ENTERTAINMENT TAX PROSECUTION

Before Mr L. A. Conroy, Acting District Justice, in the City District Court last evening, Patrick J. Cronin, lessee of the Athenæum Picture House, was prosecuted by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue in five summonses for failing to return half the admission tickets to five people who attended a performance on the evening of the 19th March.

The defendant was fined £50 in each case, mitigated to £12 10s. in each, or an aggregate penalty of £62 10s.

Mr H. O'B. Moran, State Solicitor, for the prosecution, and Mr J. S. Gaffney, Solicitor, for the defendant.

CO. LIMERICK FARMERS AND LOCAL OFFICERS BILL.

County Limerick Farmers' Association Executive welcomed the principle of the Local Officers Bill, but considered that the power of making an appointment from candidates qualified by competitive examination should be left in the hands of local bodies. They called on the Minister for Local Government not to sanction any clerical appointment other than one obtained by competitive examination, under Limerick County Council, until the Bill becomes law.

DEATH OF MR E. M. RUSSELL.

We regret to observe the announcement of the death of Mr E. M. Russell, formerly of Milford House, Limerick, which took place yesterday at Torquay. The deceased gentleman, who had attained his 83rd year, was, needless to say, a member of an old Limerick family, and was highly respected and esteemed during his practically life-long residence here.
