Tragic Accident Near Bruree.

Rathkeale Lady's Death.

About five o'clock vesterday morning'a tragic occurrence took place at Rourke's Cross, about one mile to the west of Brurce, as a result of which a lady, Miss Annie Johnson, a native of Rathkeate, lost her life in a motor smash. It would appear that Miss Johnson, accompanied by her nephew, Mr Edwin Johnson, was returning from Ardpatrick, where they were visiting the Rev Father McCoy, P.P., on Sunday,

They were travelling in a Ford van from Ardputrick, Mr Edwin Johnson driving, with the deceased sitting beside him on the seat. They passed through Bruree, and proceeded by the creamery on to Rourke's Cross, where the main road from When they Charleville cuts through. reached the Cross a Ford delivery van, the property of the "Cork Examiner," collided with the car, as a result of which Miss Johnson received terrible injuries, death being almost instantaneous. Both cars were badly smashed, while three passengers who were travelling with the driver in the Esaminer" van sustained some slight scratches and bruises.

The Inquest and Verdict.

At the Hotel, Bruree, yesterday afternoon, an inquest was held by Coroner T. H. Hannigan, Dromeollogher, fouching the death of Miss Annie Johnson, Rathkeale who was fatally injured in a motor accident which took place at Rourke's Cross, near Bruree, yesterday morning.

Mr William Grogatt was foreman of the Superintendent J. Fleming, Bruff, repre sented the police authorities. Mr Ower Binchy, solicitor, Charleville, appeared on behalf of the "Cork Examiner" and the driver, Charles Kerrigan; and Mr Cosgrave solicitor, Rathkeale, appeared for the next

Evidence having been given,

Mr Binchy, on behalf of the proprietors 'Cork Examiner" and the driver, expressed condolence with the Johnson family in their sorrow. A terrible death, trap, he said, existed at that cross, and he would ask the jury to say that it was an inevitable accident and could not be avoided.

Superintendent Fleming and the Coroner joined in the expression of sympathy; and, on behalf of the next-of-kin; Mr Cosgrave thanked Mr Binchy and the Superintendent.

The jury returned the following verdict-"We find that the deceased, Annie Johnson, met her death arising out of a motor collision between Mr Johnson's van and van of 'Cork Examiner,' driven by Charles Kerrigan, in accordance with the medical evidence tendered, and that the accident was inevitable owing to the position of the cross-roads; and we wish to call on the County Council to immediately make the place safe for traffic, as it is a veritable deathtrap. We offer our sincere sympathy to the relatives of the deceased."
