

30th, the four counties at the top of the list were Dublin, £587,997; Cork, £337,264; Limerick, £126,904; Tipperary, £100,855. If the investment per 1,000 of population was taken the order was different—viz., Dublin, £1,229; Limerick, £881; Cork, £853; Wicklow, £845. The Governor-General declared he had heard the figures with great pleasure.

The Weather.

The long spell of fine weather, with, as a rule, bright sunshine, was to some extent broken by a heavy rainfall during to-day. It was not, however, regretted, as the air which was sultry and relaxing during the past few days, has become fresher and more buoyant. Again, the moisture has benefitted the pastures, which presented a rather dried-up appearance of late.

DEATH OF MRS. BUNBURY.

We regret to record the death, which took place yesterday at her residence, Eden Terrace, of Mrs Bunbury, widow of the Right Rev. Thomas Bunbury, D.D., Bishop of Limerick, 1899-1907. The deceased lady, who had attained the fine old age of 90 years, had been in failing health for some time past. She was of a very kindly and retiring disposition, and in her day was associated with works of charity and benevolence in the city, where, as in the County Limerick, she was held in high regard and esteem by a wide circle of friends. Mrs Bunbury was mother of Brigadier-General Vesey Bunbury, and of the late Major-General W. E. Bunbury, C.B., who died in October last. Funeral will arrive at St. Mary's Cathedral at 11.30 on Monday next.

Owing to long-standing Diocesan engagements in South Kerry, the Bishop of Limerick will be unable to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Bunbury.

Mr. T. McHugh, sub-manager Tipperary branch of the National Bank, has been promoted manager at Ardara, Tírconail.

The remains of the late Mr Israel Zangwill, the novelist and playwright, were cremated at Golder's Green, London, on Thursday.

Sergt. McGrath, Civic Guards, Glenties, Donegal, has been appointed senior sergeant Carrick-on-Shannon, in room of Sergeant T. O'Dowd, promoted to rank of Inspector.

and if they did would it in He thought not. He considered division should be taken of which should be allowed to Mr Madden largely as McCormack. He regretted consideration was not given to originally before them, which as a success at the Council in thought they should not re they did it would be stated efficient and not capable of of the relations of the Cou Department for the past year repeated demands for a sw the condition of their finance On 30th September a letter stating that the District abolished, and asking the formulate a scheme instead perfected machine that had v the people. The result was payers were paying £3,000 t doing nothing, despite tl requests to have those superannuated or transferr with the report of Mr. roads engineer, on the the roads, and the conflict Mr. Davidson, he said that had asked for an enquiry responsibility, and that was. Either Mr. Quigley or Mr. I not telling the truth. It oc that the whole administrative government was professional j Saorstát Government had ens setting well-balanced institu having regard for the views and he could only liken their Mexico regime.

Mr Bennett said that he allowing the question drop. fond of passing resolutions, and should take the initiative in hands in the matter of admin Mr Condon said he was r with official appointments, but they should give more consideration to resolutions, and as one who acquiescing in the passing of the resolution he compared to stand by it. He was proposer of the resolution was sustain it. "If you are going you," he concluded.

Mr O'Sullivan reiterated his advice to the Council not to proceed with the matter. He had been recently, and had ascertained that would be very much better selected County Council than signor. He asked the Council consider the refusal of the in granting an inquiry into the between Mr Quigley and N