

scarlet fever, 21. Of the f deaths (10,902) registered rter, 1,035, or 9.5 per cent.,
 nfants under one year of age,
 or 42.6 per cent., were of 5 years and upwards. The ght infants was equivalent to irths registered, as compared d 79 for the three preceding e number of successful primary arried out during the quarter st was 16,074.

MENT COMMENT.

...
 d stormy weather of the past en way, in Limerick, at all ght and dry conditions, which loomed, and it is hoped will ne time. Heavy frosts overdually stripping the trees of an indication in itself that oaching. The weather, while ere just now, is quite the s Channel. This is particularly , where sleet and snow showers hile heavy gales have also been
 and considerable damage n produce by flooding. Heavy e also taken place in parts of All things considered, we have ason for grumbling at the itions in this country, and this olation, having regard to the ge of fuel in the cities and e is still no sign of an ending rike, which has now lasted for x months. A ray of light in a tion is, however, found in the de yesterday at Newcastle by Horne, a former Chancellor of er, that he felt the crisis would before long." One thing is public, the innocent sufferers,
 the whole business.

LF OF MR T. HARDING.

ins of the late Mr Thomas e removed on Sunday last from Yewfort, Patrickswell, at two nterment at St. Mary's Cath-the funeral arrived at 2.45.

exploitation.

DEATH OF MR P. J. GALLAGHER.

The death took place at his residence, 3 Crescent Avenue, on Sunday night, of Mr Patrick J. Gallagher, and has occasioned widespread regret in the city, where he was very popular. Mr Gallagher had only been ailing a little more than a week, and the unexpectedness of his death in the prime of life has come as a great shock to his sisters and brother, the Rev. Father Robert Gallagher, who only recently arrived home on a holiday from America, where he has been on the mission for some years past. The late Mr Gallagher possessed qualities which endeared him to a wide circle of friends. He was genial and affable, and his companionship was ever agreeable and pleasant. He was manager of Messrs. William Lloyd, grocers and spirit merchants, O'Connell-street, for the past six years, and by his employers he was held in the highest esteem and respect. Prior to his taking over the management of that business he filled a similar position at Messrs Leverette & Fry's, and here again his business capabilities were recognised, not alone by the firm but by the general public. He was a member of the Irish Club, and on the Committee of the Shannon Rowing Club, and in both institutions his fine characteristics were appreciated and admired. Outside of his own family his early demise is no more keenly felt than by the members of these Clubs, where his warm-hearted manner and kindly disposition made lasting friendships. In this the hour of their affliction the sympathy of the citizens will be extended to his two sisters and brothers in the great loss they have sustained.

At seven o'clock last evening the remains were removed to St. Michael's Catholic Church, and were followed by a large cortege. This morning at 10 o'clock Requiem High Mass was sung for the repose of the soul of the deceased, in presence of a large congregation. The Rev. Fr. Gallagher, brother, was celebrant; deacon, Rev. Fr. Fitzpatrick, C.C.; sub-deacon, Rev. Fr. Hannon, Adm., St. Michael's.

At the close of the solemn ceremonies the coffin was transferred to the hearse, and the funeral, which was of very large proportions, left for Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.

The chief mourners were—Rev. Robert Gallagher and John Gallagher (brothers), and Mr Joseph Lawler (brother-in-law).

The clergy at the Solemn Requiem High Mass walked in the procession, and at the graveside Fr. Gallagher officiated.

Wreaths were sent by the Shannon Rowing Club, the Irish Club, and friends.

CHAMPIONSHIP.

Cork won a great game, the goal 4 goals 6 points to Kilkenny's. Nearly 27,000 people saw the match at Park on Sunday.

KILBOY HOUSE.

Kilboy house, the residence of Lord Dunally, which is being re-built, is approaching completion. Lord Dunally recently met with an accident, spraining his foot in England, is expected to return to Kilboy at an early date.

DERRY TURF PRICES DOWN.

The turfmen in Derry on Saturday were demanding from 25s to 30s per load when people refused to pay these prices, they reduced their offer to 20s, at which large quantities were sold. The market was hawked round the doors and sold at a big price. Last week 1s 5d a bag was paid.

NEW LIQUOR LEGISLATION.

Too Many Public-houses.

In a speech which he delivered yesterday, Mr Blythe, Minister for Finance, foreshadowed to some extent the nature of the Government's new liquor legislation. He thought that the number of public-houses was in excess of the requirements of the country; that the country would be considerably benefited if the number were reduced, and that good results would flow from such a reduction.

WEALTHY COUNTY HOME INMATES.

At a meeting of the North Tipperary County Board of Health in Nenagh, Jeremiah Ryan said that during the week a couple of inmates died in the County Home at Thurles, and it was common knowledge that they were possessed of large amounts of money. One Thurles woman had £100 in the Post Office, and £60 in the bank. Another man died in the institution worth a considerable sum. There was another inmate who died recently leaving £400 to his family. Whoever, he said, fell in for the money should pay for the maintenance of these people.

LIMERICK HARBOUR TIDE TABLE.

		OCTOBER.
		PHASES OF THE MOON.
		Last Quarter, 28th EQ 57
		TIDES.
		MORNING.		EVENING.
		Time.	Height.	Time.	Height.
		H. M.	F. I.	H. M.	F. I.
Wednes	27	10 36	18	3 11	16
Thurs	28	11 49	17	6	—
Friday	29	0 40	17	0	1 12