

these fetched from £100 to £200 have thus further evidence of the of horse-breeding in this country, made an enviable name for itself ver.

CURRENT COMMENT.

ak.

ction with Irish Week there is ay in the monster drapery and dishes in Limerick of Irish es. The display is a feature which years has been associated round s Day, and the firms are to be ted on their fine exhibits, which the requirements of the public ated for from the point of view industries. At one time there an industrial pageant through m the National Holiday under es of the then Industrial Associa- active and useful body. The however, lapsed, but it is not too ope for its revival on some future

General's Report.

ths and Deaths recorded for the gistration Area and for the ten provincial urban areas of Saorstát with the annual rates per 1,000 of ilation, which, estimated to lle of 1927, is 650,623, are Table I. of the Registrar- Report for week ended 5th The births are represented in the Dublin Registration Area; Limerick, 17.1; Waterford, 43.1. continues to be very free from in- iseases, there being only six cases of scarlet fever and 2 of diphtheria d in the County Borough period February 12 - March 5- ths from all causes appertain- undermentioned areas for last week the past four weeks, respectively al to the following annual rates of the population:—Eleven Town 26.3 and 26.2; Dublin Registra- , 30.2 and 29.5; Dublin County 31.5 and 30.7; Cork, 22.6 and 15.1; and Water- and 18.1. The deaths from the released.

FUNERAL OF MRS B. THORNHILL.

The remains of the late Mrs Bridget Thornhill, Beechlaw, Kilmallock, were interred in the family burial place, Ardpatrick, on Saturday, after Requiem High Mass in Kilmallock Parish Church at 11 o'clock. The late Mrs Thornhill was mother of the Rev P. Thornhill, C.C., St. Michael's, for whom and the other members of his family sincere sympathy is felt on the death of a lady who was held in esteem and affection by a wide circle of friends. Rev. Father Thornhill, C.C., was celebrant of the Mass; deacon, Rev Fr. Moloney, C.C., Kilmallock; sub-deacon, Rev Dr O'Brien, C.C., do., and master of ceremonies, Rev Fr. Carroll, C.C., St. John's. There were thirty of the diocesan clergy in the choir.

The chief mourners at the funeral were—Rev P. Thornhill, C.C., St Michael's (son); Mrs J. Martin (daughter); Mr J. Martin, Local Government Auditor, Dublin (son-in-law); Joseph, Therese, and Nellie Martin (grandchildren), and Miss M. O'Donnell, Tipperary (neice).

BUSH CUTTING ON COUNTY ROADS.

Prosecutions at Rathkeale.

At Rathkeale District Sessions yesterday, before Mr P. P. O'Donoghue, District Justice, several persons were prosecuted for failing to comply with the requirements of the County Surveyor to cut bushes on the roadside. Orders were made in several of the cases with costs of court, and in one the District Justice, on the application of the County Solicitor, awarded three guineas costs.

DEATH OF MR J. B. BROMELL.

We regret to announce the death of Mr John B. Bromell, who passed away yesterday afternoon at Barrington's Hospital at the ripe age of 85 years. For a long span of time Mr Bromell was prominently identified with Limerick shipping life, having been one of the principal officials at Messrs Mullock's, Henry street. He retired from business many years ago. Of a kindly and unassuming disposition, he counted many friends who will regret to hear of his demise. He was a member of an old Limerick family, and was a Vice-President of the Protestant Young Men's Association.

The funeral will take place from Trinity Church, of which congregation he was the oldest surviving member, to-morrow at three o'clock for St. Munchin's.

were plaintiffs, and Teresa Fitzgerald Thos. Fitzgerald defendants, the pl sued for the sum of £3,205 9s. 2d. : to be due on foot of a letter of gua whereby Daniel Fitzgerald guarante repayment by him of all advances ma to be made to Jos. Nolan, of Cloghar Rathkeale, Co. Limerick. Defendant sued as executors of Daniel Fitzgerald

Having heard the evidence of Mr P manager of the Munster and Leinster Rathkeale, and Mr P. T. Liston, solr., the making of the guarantee, and as amount due by Mr Nolan at the date death of Mr Fitzgerald, his Lordship judgment against Teresa Fitzgера executrix for £1,900 with costs, and ; declaration that she was entitled to demnity against Jos. Nolan.

For the plaintiffs—Messrs P. Lynch, J. Fitzgerald, K.C., and M. Binch structed by Mr P. T. Liston).

For Mrs Fitzgerald—Messrs M. Ma K.C., and Conor Maguire (instructed t P. J. O'Sullivan).

For Jos. Nolan—Mr A. Corbett structed by Mr T. O'Rielly).

GRAND CENTRAL.

All who have seen and enjoyed the of Marion Nixon as a screen leading w will want to witness "Spangles," which produced at the Grand Central last 1 and will again be shown this evening Wednesday. It is a great three ring ; with the real animals, and descripti thrilling performances in the biggest c in the world. Marion Nixon is starred Pat O'Malley, also a famous artiste, an story is by Nellie Revell, adapted t screen by Leah Baird. The film was en last night by large audiences.

The Grand Central is amply caterin its patrons on St. Patrick's Day, w most diverting picture, "Oh Wl Nurse," will be produced. There will at the matinee performance at 3.30, exhibition of Irish dancing by the pu the Misses Halpin and Mr J. Halpin. picture will again be shown on Friday Saturday.

LIMERICK MUNICIPAL DINNE.

This most deserving institution, in many city ladies are keen workers, is excellent work amongst the poor, b enable the charity to be carried on Easter additional funds are urgent quired. An appeal was made in a vertisement which appeared in our last and we feel assured it will meet v generous response.

Subscriptions may be sent to the A to Mrs Woodhouse, Treasurer pro tem. McGrath, President; Mrs O'Mara an Rynne, Treasurers; Miss K. Barry Miss K. Frost, Hon. Secs.