PREMIUMS FOR BOARS.

At the meeting of the County Agricultural Committee yesterday a letter was read from Mr E. R. Shaw, Hon. Sec. of the South of Ireland Bacon Curers' Association, stating that it was noted that the Committee had under consideration at last meeting the question of premiums for boars allocated by his Association.

The Secretary—We got notification to-day of seven premiums from the Bacon Curers' Association.

The Chairman—Tell them that it was a bit late in the season.

The Secretary—That was not the fault of the Bacon Curers' Association but of the Department.
