

Iron Scheme.

ficer had a narrow escape while working on the electric crane on the Blackhe Shannon Power Scheme. The crane was nearing it left the rails, and fell with a terrific crash. The time working on one of the huge elevators, and before it left the metals, it was almost sixty feet utilised for placing steel on the bridge that is to the canal at this point.

BEET AND BEET TIVATION.

g of the County Technical day, McCormack, Co.C. (Chairman), inquired if there was any up beet growing in County gricultural Instructor, said what could be done, but it speculation. He had heard five acres were grown last were growing fifteen acres price was 54s. a ton at the profit to be derived was much as £10 an acre.

—I believe the sugar is Yes. I was speaking to big merick and they told me prefer it to Tate's.

—It is well to know that lly grow beet and manufac- is country.

OF LIMERICK.

ev. Canon Begley, P.P., has been appointed Pastor n room of the late Ven. Shea. Canon Begley, a igh scholarly attainments, f an ecclesiastical history of Limerick, is very highly omcollogher, where he has any years. Needless to say, rishieners under a debt of uturn by his tireless and orts to alleviate the distre s omcollogher cinema disaster. esponsible for the inaugura- fund, which proved so great eaved families.

OF IRELAND.

agent of the Bank of Ire- has been appointed agent succession to Mr George Kilmallock, and it was a question whether the Committee would continue that class.

No action was, however, taken.

THE LATE MR THOMAS E. LLOYD.

At a meeting of the County Limerick Agricultural Committee yesterday,

The Chairman, Mr John McCormack, said—Before we take up the business, I am sure you have all heard of the death of Mr Thomas Lloyd, father of our colleague, Mr Edward Lloyd. I know I am voicing the feelings of the Committee when I say that we express our sympathy with Mr Lloyd and family in their bereavement.

Mr Quaid—Your observations are shared by the Committee in offering our condolence to Mr Lloyd.

Mr O'Sullivan—I knew the late Mr Lloyd, and he was a very kind hearted gentleman.

The Secretary said he desired to be associated with the resolution of sympathy on behalf of the staff and himself.

DEATH OF MR. PETER GANLEY.

Many old friends will regret to learn of the death of Mr Peter W. Ganley, which occurred this morning at St. John's Hospital. He was an official of the G.P.O. for a long period, but retired on pension several years ago. In his day he took a keen interest in athletics and cycling, and was a prominent member of the old L.A.A. & B.C. His kindly and bright disposition made him very popular. He had been in failing health for some time past. Funeral arrangements appear in obituary notice.

AN INTERESTING SALE.

What is reputed to be a sideboard used in the old Irish House of Commons was sold last week to an Albany, U.S.A., collector, Miss Damon, at Messrs Hartigan's salesrooms, Davis street. The sideboard, which is in the design of that period, is a Sheraton, and the price for which it was purchased ran into three figures. Miss Damon has made several purchases of antiques in Ireland, and is an authority of repute.

BLASTING ACCIDENT.

A man named Michael Dooley was conveyed to the City Home and Hospital last night suffering from injuries sustained in a blasting operation at Ardnacrusha. He was struck by flying splinters, and ten stitches have had to be applied to his head. He is progressing favourably.

ROADS GRANT.

The Roads Department of the Ministry of Local Government has notified the Corporation of a grant of £1,018 towards the improvement of trunk and link roads within Corporation heard a deputation yesterday from the men employed at Lemonfield Quarry relative to the proposal to accept supplies of stone for road metalling from contractor, as under the direct labour system the output was below the Borough Surveyor's requirements. The deputation urged that the existing system should be adhered to, and promised an increased output to meet the needs of the Surveyor. The men handed in a statement bearing on the matter, which will be considered in due course.

WHEN ON THE RUN.

How General Collins was Disguised.

Judge Pigot, in the action by Catherine E. Duggan, merchant, Kilkee, against Henry Williams, hairdresser, 35 Henry-street, Dublin, awarded plaintiff £18 damages. The action was to recover £200 damages for the alleged unskilful treating of her hair, which caused her severe personal injuries:

Her case was that while her hair was being treated the liquid fell on her face. She was laid up for three months.

Defendant, in evidence, denied negligence and unskilfulness, and if the liquid fell on her face, it usually happened when hair was being dyed. He had 25 years' experience as a skilled hairdresser.

"During the troubled times," he said, "I regularly treated the hair of the late Michael Collins, Liam Mellows, President Cosgrave and others for disguise when they were on the run." There was laughter when he added: "I converted President Cosgrave from a fair man into a dark man."

Counsel—Mr Cawley (instructed by M. F. J. Greene) appeared for plaintiff; and Mr Lavery (instructed by Miss Early) for the defendant.

CORPORATION INSURANCE.

A representative of the Irish Council General County Councils attended a committee meeting of the Corporation last night and asked that the Council place all its insurance with the General Council. The Committee pointed out that they would be willing to accede to the application under certain specified conditions, adding that at present the Corporation had insured all its property with two companies for a period of five years.

FIRE AT CITY COURTHOUSE.

This morning some screens used round polling booths took fire about ten o'clock in the office of Mr Prendergast, City Sheriff, at the City Courthouse. It is supposed the fire was caused by a spark from the grate. The Corporation motor tender was quickly on the scene, and had the blaze extinguished.