FRIENDS' MEETING HOUSE (Ceoil-st.)—Sunday, 11 a.m.

FATALLY GORED BY A BULL.

Mr James W. Ryan, P.C., Cappanuke, Murroe, succumbed on Wednesday evening at St. John's Hospital to injuries received by being gored by a bull on the previous Monday. It appears that the deceased had only purchased the beast a few weeks ago, and was when attacked walking through his land. Mr Ryan was an ex-member of the Limerick County Council, and brother of Very Rev Canon Ryan, Borrisoleigh, and brother-in-law of Mr Robert Ryan, O'Connell street, Limerick. Deep sympathy is extended to the relatives in their sorrow.

by Mr M. Cahill, Co. U., and secondly:—"That we place on our deepest regret at, and our abhorrent strongest condemnation of, the most exceedingly revolting circumstances which have befallen the late Mr Kevin O'Higgins, Vice-President of the Executive Council, and offer our sympathy to his wife and family, and to the other relatives, and to the members of the Council. And in transacting any urgent business, we regard this meeting as a further mark of sympathy with those left to mourn his death as an earnest of our condemnation of an indescribably terrible happening."

THE NEW PROVINCIAL OF THE AUGUSTINIAN ORDER.

The appointment of the Very Rev Hennessy as Provincial of the Augustinian Order with residence in the city, was celebrated in a befitting manner last night when the Brass and Reed Band discoursed a music outside the Priory House, O'Connell's. At the conclusion, the Provincial appeared and addressed the members of the Band and the crowd. He expressed his sincere thanks for the honour shown him by the Band and the city and said this act of kindness was not the least to him in the city. He was, he remarked, very glad to be leaving Limerick, where he has many friends, and would do all that was possible for St. John's Band and the city ever came in his way to render service.

The Rev Dr Murphy, O.S.A., who led the spiritual labours for Galway, the scene of his morning for Galway, the scene of his spiritual labours, also thanked the Band and citizens.
