

his direction may not materialise. It is to be trusted, however, that it will, in order that intending consumers may not suffer a disappointment, that, from an industrial standpoint, may react on enterprise and restrict trade.

FUNERAL OF MR. HANDEL TROUSDELL.

The remains of the late Mr Handel F. TrousdeLL were removed from his residence, 26 Barrington-street, at ten o'clock this morning, for interment at the family burial-place, St John's Cemetery. The funeral was of very large proportions, embracing every class and creed and business interests; and the blinds of numerous establishments en route were drawn as the cortege was passing. It was a fitting tribute to the popularity of the deceased, and the sympathy which is expressed by the community with his widow, young family, and relatives at the premature demise of one who was held in affectionate regard and esteem by all who knew him.

The chief mourners were—Frank Ranalow, uncle; S. Bolton, brother-in-law; A. E. Goodwin, and W. H. Ranalow, cousins of the deceased; the Mayor (Mr J. G. O'Brien) with his sons, and also Mr Alec O'Brien, relatives.

The clergy included The Archdeacon of Limerick and the Rev Chancellor Swain (who officiated), Rev A. W. Neill, Pastor Pearse, and Rev J. R. Ennis.

The service in the church was partly choral and included the hymn "Abide With Me." The Rev Chancellor Swain made a touching reference to the deceased gentleman, one of whose parishioners he was in St Michael's.

Wreaths were sent from the following— "His sorrowing wife and family"; "His loving sister"; Mr and Mrs Goodwin, Llandevin; Mr Ranalow and Mrs Hart, Kilkenny; Mr and Mrs Ranalow, Clare Castle; Mrs Bolton and family; the Staff Messrs Goodwin & Co.; Mr and Miss Haydn; "Masonic Lodge 268, Royal Arch Chapter, Masonic Club and all at 6 the Crescent"; Mrs and Miss Swain; Mrs Boyd and family; Miss Ethel Eakins; Mrs Moroney, Crescent View; Miss Hamilton, Farlton; Mrs Dodds; Mr and Mrs Gleeson and family; Mrs Taylor, Mrs Stack, and Miss Taylor; Mr Griffin, Ballinacurra; Mrs and Mrs Lacy; Mr and Mrs Taylor, Queen street.

The Minister of Pensions has appointed Mrs D. M. Price, Leyrath, Kilkenny, to be a member of the Waterford and District Area Advisory Committee, in place of Mrs M. V. C. Loughheed, resigned.

from them. They had hoped to at that Synod to every position and responsibility which it will give

Outside the diocese, the Church fored a great loss in the death of Bernard, a gifted Provost of Tril scholar, administrator, and leader whose conspicuous gifts would his influence felt in any assembly of fellow men.

Early in the year they were deprived of the assistance of Yates, whose preferment to the Assistant Secretary to the R. a serious loss to the diocese, which to value his personal worth. (Hear, hear.)

In referring to the Diocesan President said it was quite evident regards religious education, the necessity existed that the clergy make the fullest possible use of schools for instructing the children. A few day schools remained in and as a consequence the closing of greater importance to the Sunday schools and in opportunities which existed of that might present themselves the week. The very few numbers left this work well capacity of the earnest clergyman the interests of the young people

"Again, with our diminished numbers Bishop proceeded, "our not urgency is to content ourselves with parochial outlook, but there is stimulus to zeal than to look abroad how great is the work which the Church are doing in all parts of the diocese. A few years ago the Bishop great Northern Diocese saw great opportunities for intercessory work of the Church as a whole workers in the South possess.

distracting rush of work, no feeling task committed to each parish is requires exceptional strength to attack it. Ours is a more quiet we are placed here by God, clergy alike, to do our best in our day to further His Kingdom value their Church and support fact is in itself an encouragement with declining numbers." (Appl) Bishop expressed his pleasure consecration of Miltown Mall gave him, and spoke in eulogistic the action of the Rector in connection the erection of the sacred edifice

The President nominated Lord as Assessor

The Dean of Killaloe moved condolence with Lady Dunalley