said Mr McMahon, who added that Mr Healy was acting unfairly towards Mr Minogue.

Mr Brady, Co.C., said that Mr Healy was shouting at Mr Minogue as if he were a savage.

Mr McMahon said that if Mr Minogue was "a big buck" Mr Healy would give him a fair chance.

"I don't care about big bucks or little bucks ; I am looking after the property of the people of Scariff," retorted Mr Healy.

AN AFFLUENT MENDICANT.

Last evening Guard Griffin, Edward Street Station, arrested an old man named Martin Liddane in the vicinity of the Railway Station on a charge of begging. When searched, Liddane, who is stated to be an old age pensioner, had in his possession deposit receipt in the Post Office Savings Bank for £150, and in addition another receipt in the National Bank for £50, as well as some notes. The defendant was subsequently released to appear on summons at the City District Sessions.

CO. LIMERICK NUN DIES IN AMERICA

A Chicago Exchange announces the death of Sister Mary Oliva, daughter of the late Mr Jeremiah and Mrs Crowe, Newtown, Knocklong, who, it states, went to America in 1898. She entered St Xaxier Academy about 29 years ago and celebrated the silver jubilee of her profession in the Community of the Sisters of Mercy on August 15th, 1926.

WATERFORD MARGARINE FACTORY.

It is rumoured in Waterford that Messrs McDonnell's margarine factory may be re-opened within the next fortnight or three weeks.

The findings of the Tariff Commission will be made public shortly after the Dail reassembles, and the belief is persistently held that the Commission will favour a tariff on imported margarine, thus enabling the local factory to restart operations.

FASHIONABLE INTELLIGENCE.

Latest colourings in Overcoatings and Riding Breeches can be had from Thos. Donovan, 29 O'Connell Street. No garment is so severely tested in wear as an Overcoat or Riding Breeches. Place your order, therefore, with the Tailor who will have them made to stand the severest test. (—)
