

of 1839. But at the same time last Friday night's terrific visitation will not soon be forgotten, and, as stated, one must go back many years to find a parallel.

LIMERICK CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

At a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last evening, the following were elected Directors for the ensuing year—Senator J. P. Goodbody, G. R. Ryan, J. H. Roche, Eldred Holliday, S. J. K. Roycroft, E. Lloyd, M. D. Shaw.

THE WEATHER.

Stormy weather, though nothing at all like last Friday night's experiences in Limerick, prevailed in the early hours of this morning, causing some further damage to property. A large breach in a boundary wall off the Ballincurra road was caused on Friday night.

DEATH OF MRS J. F. BOURKE.

Numerous friends in Limerick and elsewhere have heard with sincere regret of the demise, after a short illness, of Mrs Alice Bourke, wife of Mr John F. Bourke, which took place at Beech Lawn, North Circular Road, on last Sunday morning. Deep sympathy is expressed with Mr Bourke and his young family on the loss of a beloved wife and mother.

Limerick Chamber of Commerce and Harbour Board yesterday passed a vote of condolence with Mr Bourke in his bereavement.

GRAND CENTRAL.

There are few who have not heard or read of Gene Stratton Porter's famous novel "Laddie." This was screened last night at the Grand Central before large audiences, and followed with keen interest and pleasure. It will be again shown to-night and Wednesday, and is well worth seeing.

For the remainder of the week "The Wrath of the Gods," a picturesque story of a gigantic icy mountain world, will be produced.

LYRIC THEATRE.

"The Kellys and the Cohens."

Last night, at the Lyric Theatre "The Kellys and the Cohens" commenced a week's engagement before big houses, which enjoyed to the full the mirth and variety with which the piece abounds. It is an Irish-Jewish production, in which the wit of both nations is amply illustrated. The sixteen scenes, which are interspersed with capital

HARBOUR BOARD ADJOURNS.

The meeting of the Limerick Harbour Board was adjourned yesterday as a tribute of respect to the memory of the late Archibald Murray.

Moving that the condolence of the Commissioners be offered to the relatives of the late Mr Murray, Alderman P. O'Flynn said that the deceased gentleman was an old and highly respected citizen. He was a kind and considerate employer, and a useful and helpful citizen in every respect. His charity was not circumscribed or narrow, as he gave freely to every good and deserving object without distinction.

Mr J. H. Roche, in seconding the motion said Limerick had in the death of Mr Murray been deprived of a good friend, and one of its principal business men. He was a very charitable and kindly man, and a large and considerate employer. Mr Murray was a member of that Board for several years and on many occasions occupied the position of President of the Chamber of Commerce. It was with a deep sense of regret he seconded the resolution.

The Secretary, associating himself with the resolution, said he knew Mr Murray for a great number of years. He was a very kindly gentleman, and they knew the help he had given to provide houses for the working-classes, as was evinced in the great interest he showed as a member of the Thomond Artizans Dwellings Co. In every charitable work Mr Murray evinced interest and practical sympathy.

The Mayor put the resolution, which passed in silence.
