THE LATE MR. J. J. RYAN.
 Patrick Street.

On Tuesday last, at 2 p.m., the funeral of Mr J. J. Ryan took place to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery. Mr Ryan's death was very unexpected. On the Saturday previous he was in his usual health and had conducted his business up to the closing hour, so that the announcement of his death on the following morning came as a great shock to his very many friends and acquaintances. Always kindly and courteous, Mr Ryan had earned the respect and esteem of all, and the widespread regret for his untimely end was manifested in the very representative gathering at his funeral and the numerous messages of sympathy received by his sorrowing relatives. His loss will be felt especially by the trading business community of the city. Mass for the repose of his soul was celebrated at St. Michael's Church at 10 a.m. on All Saints' Day, and was attended by the relatives and many friends of the deceased.

The following officiated at the funeral:— Rev. Father Hannan, Adm., St. Michael's; Rev. Father Thornhill, C.C., do.; Rev. Father Harty, C.C., do.; Rev. Father Fitzpatrick, C.C., do.; Rev. Dr. Cowper, C.C., do.; Rev. Father Moriarty, C.C., do.

The chief mourners were—Mrs Ryan (wife), Miss Esther Ryan (daughter), Miss K. Ryan and Mrs Edmonds (nieces), Mr T. Ryan (brother), Mr Timothy Ryan (nephew), Mr Edmonds, Mr D. Clune, Mr C. Clune (nephews).

The obsequies at the graveside were conducted by Rev M. Hannan, Adm, St. Michael's.

Amongst the general public were—The Mayor (Mr J. G. O'Brien), A. J. Barnett, C. Clohessy, Wm. B. Fitt, D. O'Donovan, R. Hartigan, M. Griffin, M. Ryan, R. Gubbins, M. Egan, P. McCarty, R. Slattery, S. Flynn, J. Irwin, D. Broderick, Capt. Byrne, J. Condon, J. Kennedy, D. Nolan, E. G. Fitt, F. Horan, J. Malone, W. Hartigan, H. Spillane, M. Corboy, F. Clune, J. Dooley, M. Ryan, J. O'Mahony, J. Morrissey, P. Mullaly, J. Kiely, J. Locke, D. Enright, P. McNamara, T. Ryan, J. O'Dwyer, J. Doran, N. Millane, T. Dillon, P. O'Brien, F. O'Mahony, J. Rawson, P. Madigan, J. Corbet, D. Hickey, J.
