DUNDALK BACON FACTORY RE-OPENS.

The premises recently occupied by Messrs Lunbam Bros. in Dundalk, were yesterday taken over by the Dundalk Packing Co., of which Mr Jos. O'Mara is the chairman of directors. Killing will be in full swing next week. Mr J. P. Wilson, manager, interviewed, said their prices would be published and they would take all the pigs they could get at this price. For a start he estimated that they would handle from 500 to 600 per week, which should increase in time, and employ between 30 and 40 persons in all. They intended as far as possible to re-employ all old hands.
