DEATH OF MR DUGALD BLUE.

We regret to observe the announcement of the death of Mr Dugald Blue, which occurred at his residence in Dublin on February 3rd. Mr Blue was well and popularly known in Limerick, where many years ago he and his brothers were associated with the commercial life of this city. Mr Blue possessed a fund of humour, and the older generation will recall the rare enjoyment which his thoroughly original "readings," many of them on local topics, afforded them in the lecture hall of the P.Y.M.A. A man of charming manner, and a most interesting raconteur, he was held in the highest esteem and regard by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance, and his demise has been heard of with sincere regret by his friends in the old city, which he loved so well.

It may be added that he took a keen interest in the old Limerick regattas, and was in his day a champion sculler.

PREVENTION OF CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

Sergeant's Work Recognised.

At Newmarket District Court, Sergeant Marnan was presented with a medal and certificate by Mr Gleeson, D.J., on behalf of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals in recognition of his services to the Society. In making the presentation, Mr Gleeson said it gave him the greatest possible pleasure in doing so, and he hoped he would have the pleasure of making similar presentations to others in the county in future. The Guards had always done

The Chairman said he was sure all glad to see that the waterworks for Newcastle West had been passed by the County Council. They (the Council) had made a special appeal to each of the County Councils to support their appeal had been very successful. Their appeal had been very successful. They thought it was right to express their appreciation to the members of the County Council for the public spirit they had shown in connection with the scheme, and that they were also due to the deputation which had attended the Council meeting on their behalf. (Father O'Carroll, C.C.; Messrs. James and James Lenihan) and the Council for the unemployed, who were also present.

CONDOLENCE.

Mr McAuliffe proposed a resolution of sympathy with the vice-chairman, Mr Phelan, on the death of his brother, Mr Thomas Byrnes, and with the bereaved family.

Mr James Lenihan seconded.

Mr D. Kennedy proposed a vote of sympathy with Mr P. Cregan on the death of his brother.

The Chairman said very high families had been bereaved by the death of their respected vice-chairman, and they sympathised with the bereaved family.

The meeting then adjourned.

Rheumatism

A sharp attack of Rheumatism demands prompt treatment. Sloan's Liniment is wonderfully effective in the treatment of Rheumatism. Applied lightly to the painful part, it penetrates and quickly drives away congestion, bringing relief and driving out all pain and inflammation. Clean and easy to use.
