

FEIS CEOIL.

Catholic Institute Choral Union.

At the Feis Ceoil in Dublin on Thursday, Limerick Catholic Institute Choral Union is the only entry in the Male Voice Choir competition. The tests were—"While gazing on the Moon's Light" (arr. Finlay); Yorkshire Wassail Song (Arnold Foster).

Mr Johnson, adjudicator, said that a good deal of their singing was very good. Their second song was much better than the first. He gave them 77 marks.

AGRICULTURAL SCHOLARSHIPS.

Lisnagry Boy's Success.

At the recent competitive examination for three agricultural scholarships for boys, held at the County Council Chamber, Limerick, Mr James J. Moloney, Olyduff, Lisnagry, was placed first on the list of competitors having obtained 59 per cent. of the marks. He was prepared by Mr P. J. Rea, Civil Service Academy, Henry Street, and both were to be congratulated on the highly satisfactory result achieved. The scholarships are tenable at the Department's Agricultural Stations at Athenry, Ballthaise and Clonakilty, and Copeswood Agricultural College, Pallaskenry.

THE LATE MRS KEAYS.

The funeral of the late Mrs T. Keays, Brittas, which took place on Friday, the 11th instant, for the family burial place at Abington, was attended by a large and representative concourse of mourners. The deceased lady was mother of Messrs Thomas and James Keays, well known in sporting circles; and the extent of the cortege was a striking tribute to her memory, and evinced the esteem and respect entertained for her sons and other relatives.

Mr Thomas Keays is owner, breeder, and trainer of several good racehorses, including Safety Valve and Merenault. Her other son, Mr James Keays, was one of the best athletes in this county, and, like his brother, immensely popular with all classes.
