

forms of certificates of the consule at all Post Offices Monday next, and we feel an undoubtedly attractive appeal to Limerick as in the Gill stated, a people's move-or tending to their welfare, economic. It has made in the Saorstát in the past is destined to achieve far in the future. We may to the fact that public hich the new terms and Savings Certificates will be is cussed, and local Savings blished, are advertised to be stle West on Wednesday e, and at Rathkeale on the n each case at 8 p.m. We will be large attendances to tives of the Central Savings l prominent local speakers ounced to address these

The marriage took place in St. Joseph's Church last Tuesday morning of Mr Roger C. McNamara, Overseer Postal Telegraph Department, Limerick, and Miss Mabel Florence Tierney, fifth daughter of Mr and Mrs J. Tierney, of No. 1 Querrin Villa, Bullinacurra, and grand-daughter of the late Mr Randal Borough, Cappa House, Kilrush.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev.
 Father Thornhill, Adm., St. Michael's, who was celebrant of the Nuptial Mass.

The bride was attired in beige georgette and lace, with hat to match, and was given away by her father. The bridesmaid was her sister, Miss Agatha Tierney, who wore embroidered georgette with net hat.

The bridegroom is eldest son of Mrs McNamara and the late Mr John McNamara, Commercial Hotel, Catherine street. Mr J. Quin was best man

At the conclusion of the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, and later the happy couple left for their honeymoon on the Continent, amid the hearty felicitations of their many friends.

The presents were numerous and handsome.

The School of Art in ~~char~~ Butcher and Miss O'Neill is a fine There are examples of drawing, and design, while in another room work, including embroidery and stencilling, etc. The visitor cannot notice a very handsome draught fi made from an original design. It be an ornament to any roc another apartment are paintings and water colours, while of to trade are very effective des posters. Modelling in cast, wood and metal work; drawings from and the antique, studies from architectural designs, make up a sh is at once attractive and instructive.

The above notes are the result of a "eye" view, as it were, but they w the ample provision that the Technical Institute has made for ins of the young people in technical kn and the results, as we have said, a creditable to them, to the Princip Institute, and to the teaching staff various departments.

It may be added that an interes hibition of stationery and books is Messrs Brown and Nolan, Ltd, Dublin publications include Dr Burke's "In History of Ireland," an established s work. The Gaelic Department represented, and there are also w general interest.

CHORAL FESTIVAL.

Diocesan Choral Festival will ary's Cathedral on Thursday, 15 p.m. The preacher will the Dean of Limerick, D.D

LIMERICK RACES.

meeting at Greenpark, which Thursday next, the 21st inst., ed, prove one of the greatest recent years. There is a for the six races comprising th the going now in excellent fields may be confidently to. A new feature is that, the motor yard on the old entrance to the grand stand be parked as usual at 6s so provided a popular motor rance to the field where, we tors will be parked at a First race 2.30 o'clock

RICK SHIPPING.

Ending June 16th.
 general; ss. Ambria, general; coal; ss. Aranmore, general; eral; ss. Mungret, general; coal, and ss. Donoghmore,

NATIONAL CANCER CAMPAIGN.

Flag Day

The Flag Day in connection with the National Cancer (Ireland) Campaign took place in the City to-day, and proved very successful. Fortunately the weather turned out fine, and the ladies and children employed in selling yellow favors did a brisk business. These were generally worn by City and County people.

DEATH OF MR RODNEY PEACOCKE.

We announce with deep regret, which will be shared by numerous friends, the death of Mr Rodney Peacocke, third and youngest son of Mr W. G. Peacocke, William street, which took place this afternoon at Barrington's Hospital, as the result of an accident while out shooting a week ago.
 The deceased young gentleman was very popular, and there is widespread sympathy with Mr and Mrs Peacocke and family in their great sorrow.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

Mr G. W. Redding and family wish to return very sincere thanks to all those who so kindly sent letters of sympathy, telegrams and floral tributes in their recent sad bereavement, and trust each and all will accept this as an acknowledgment of their gratitude.

TALENTED LIMERICKMAN'S W

We have seen a photograph of fountain recently erected on the Ath Boat Club grounds. It is a very design, in concrete, with symbolic fig bold relief, and in the fountain p swans gracefully floating. At the model from life of a member of the rowing costume, with uplifted oar The entire work was designed and e by Mr Stanislaus Quin, another man, who is to be heartily congratu his artistic taste and skill. We m mention that in the erection and cons of the work Mr Quin was ably ass Mr Stephen Clancy, vice-Captain Club.

The Incorporated Society Musicians, London.

AT the recent examinations held in the six candidates presented by MISS O'DONNELL, 67 Catherine Street, w awarded honours in Pianoforte Playing.
 The successful students are as follows:
 Grade 4 (pass with honours)—MISSSES I COLLERY, SARAH QUILLIGAN.
 Grade 3 (pass with honours)—MISS COLLERY.
 Grade 1 (pass with honours)—MISSSES THOMPSON, MAUREEN THOMPSON, and ALPHONSA O'SULLIVAN