FUNERAL OF MR J. J. HALPIN.

The funeral of the late Mr Joseph J. Halpin, Alexander Terrace, took place on Tuesday morning from St Michael's Church after Requiem Mass at ten o'clock for Mount St Lawrence Cemetery. On Monday evening the remains arrived from Dublin, and were met at the station by a considerable body of citizens, who escorted them to the church, where they rested overnight. The attendance at the funeral was large and representative of the business and professional interests of the city, and was a fitting tribute of respect to the memory of the deceased gentleman, as well as a striking manifestation of the esteem in which he was held by his fellow citizens.

The chief mourners were—Mr James J. Halpin, Mr Joseph T. Halpin (Dublin), and Mr Edward Halpin, sons; Mr Joseph Halpin (Cork), Mr Edward Halpin (Youghal), nephews; Mr David Nolan (Dublin), and Mr D. O'Callaghan, solicitor, relatives.

The clergy present were—Rev. Father Thornhill, Adm., St Michael's; Rev. Father Harty, C.C., do.; Rev. Father Carroll, C.C., do.; Rev. Father Fitzpatrick, C.C., do. Father Thornhill officiated at the grave.

A NOTABLE PUBLICATION.

To mark the attainment of its forty-third birthday, the current issue of the "Irish Cyclist and Motor Cyclist" has been produced in a style equal to that of a high-class monthly magazine. The foremost writers on cycling and motor cycling subjects have contributed a large number of excellent articles and stories of the most entertaining type. It is lavishly illustrated by Irish artists. The humorous touch which has always distinguished the journal since the late Percy French started his career on its staff is thoroughly maintained.
