

the reputation or the ation for efficiency, the f its people, its industrial ppreciation of the views ther people. Being in scarcely avoid speaking of ne, as he saw a very close a it and tourist develop-leted the Shannon power e largest power plant in nder the partial develop-station would generate r of energy, which could that were known as the ment" and the "final he scheme. It would be ments that would at once of visitors as an index
ons and wide outlook, ing advertisement for its aid they would have d cleaner houses, better ng, better means of trans-unnatural physical labour, ication of science. In a on Scheme would enable country more efficiently ng his trip to the United oughlin found that the
was the one thing that dy there, not only Irish-tive-born Americans, as it imagination, especially in at development on these d States. It was to them ation that the Irish Free ger content to be a poor,
, and that the new regime
It was to the American g and striking thing that ment in this country had an economic point of view be of supreme interest to combined a holiday with superficial, of the country's Foley emphasised that to the Shannon in future ermanent nature, because as completed people would in even greater numbers
The route from Limerick s Bridge to Killaloe, and se to Ardnacrusha, would tourist trip. Nature had ountry with scenic and stics which were priceless, to them to advertise sessions; to be proud et other people know of
They were already con-h Great Britain for trade number of people in that akening to the fact that a ongst the natural beauties doubtedly the better golfer. He had won on his golf, and deserved to be the South of Ireland champion to-day. (Applause.) He did not think that at any period of the game did he see such brilliant golf as the first nine holes played by Mr Burke.

Capt. L. Hewison proposed the toast of the Lahinch Golf Club, and associated with it the name of Mr E. L. Wickham, whom he considered to be one of the best secretaries in the world.

Mr Wickham expressed thanks for his name being coupled with the toast of the Lahinch Golf Club, because they had on that day a genuine native of Lahinch winning the championship for the first time. Lahinch had been a long time in labour, but it had at last produced a golfer. He hoped to see Mr Burke go for the Irish open golf championship. In the South of Ireland championship this year they had visitors from many countries—America, Scotland, England, Wales, and all parts of Ireland.

FUNERAL OF MR. E. B. BOURKE.

The remains of the late Mr Edmund B. Bourke were interred in Mount St. Laurence Cemetery yesterday evening, in the presence of a large number of mourners. At half-past 4 o'clock the funeral arrived from Kilkee, and was met outside the city by a big contingent of citizens, representative of the commercial and professional classes, as well as by the Mayor and several members of the Corporation, and municipal staffs. It was a striking manifestation of the sorrow felt by the citizens at the death of a popular gentleman, and expressed their sympathy for his relatives in their bereavement.

The chief mourners were—Mrs Bourke (widow); Miss M Bourke (daughter); Mr W Bourke (brother); Mrs Sheehan (sister); Mr D Ryan, Mr W Ryan, Mr J O'Sullivan, Cork (nephews); Mrs O'Sullivan, Misses M Ryan and H Ryan (nieces), and Mr J Niall, Killaloe (brother-in-law).

The clergy present were—Very Rev Canon Breen, P.P., Kilkee; Rev Father Culligan, C.C., do.; Rev Father Cleary, C.C., do.; Rev Father Thornhill, Adm, St Michael's, Limerick, and Rev Fr O'Rielly, S.J.

Canon Breen officiated at the grave.

made with the Great Southern Railways for the issue of cheap three-day excursion tickets, and there were two conducted tours each day. The Supply Board had established a guide bureau, and had a staff of six who were fully employed in the work of conducting the visitors over the scheme, and in that

WOLVERHAMPTON MEETING

SHREWSBURY H'CAP

Manto (L Read)
 Probus (Hulme)
 Lady Capulet (H Graves)... ..
 Also ran—L'Habit Vert, Prince Ru Pomander, Rejaf, Arzila, Caros, Delh
 Trained by A Law Betting—5 to 2 agst Rejaf, 5 to Capulet and L'Habit Vert, 6 to 1
 7 to 1 Manto and Probus, 100 to 6 o
 Won by threequarters of a length.

HIMLEY PLATE

Fondness (Jellis)
 Armaine (C Richards)
 Baby Cyclone (M Beary)
 Also ran—Susanna, Perula, Party
 Trained by Barling
 Betting—11 to 10 agst Armaine, Fondness, 100 to 8 Party Frock and Cyclone, 20 to 1 others
 Won by a neck.

BUSHBURY PLATE

Ring o' Roses (Graves)
 Lall c (Fox)
 Falakeh (M Beary)
 *Dead heat. Stakes divided Also ran—Hereford Poacher, Syrtis Vance, Queen Bee, Titter.
 Ring o' Roses trained by R. Jon Lall c trained by W P Lowe Betting—6 to 4 on Falakeh, 11 to Lall c, 6 to 1 Ring o' Roses, 100 to 7

RUCKLEY H'CAP

War Mist (Fox)
 Craignure (Sirett)
 Blacon (A Burns)
 Also ran—Nottingham Pet, Oriss
 Trained by S Darling Betting—13 to 8 agst War Mist, Craignure, 7 to 2 Nottingham Pet, Orissa, 10 to 1 Blacon.
 Won by half a length

WALSALL STAKES,

Verdant Green (T Barber)
 Bucks Hussine
 On Approval
 Runners—Bucks Hussine, Rajk
 Approval, Son of Mars, Eagle
 Rock Forrard, Fire Escape, Verdant Kalornis, and Cedars.
 Betting—5 to 4 agst Bucks Huss
 2 Son of Mars, On Approval; 10 to 1
 100 to 8 Rajknmar, 100 to 6 others

DUDLEY PLATE.

Silver Wedding (Beary)
 Grange View (Graves)
 Diligencia (Lane)
 Also ran—Historical.
 Trained by R Dawson.