

he was unable to be present at the meeting. On behalf of the clergy his lordship desired to express the high view they entertained of the members of St Vincent de Paul Society and the excellent manner in which they discharged their duties. (Applause.) The proceedings then closed.

DEATH OF REV. W. CAGNEY, C.S.S.R.

The death, which we announce with regret, took place at Mount St. Alphonsus last night of the Rev. William Cagney, C.S.S.R., after an illness of two months' duration. The deceased clergyman was born in Croom fifty-seven years ago, and was ordained in Teignmouth, Devon, in 1896. He was on the Irish mission for a few years before proceeding to Australia and New Zealand, where he laboured for a quarter of a century. He returned to this country last December, and had been since in residence at Mount St. Alphonsus. The interment will take place on Monday, after Requiem High Mass, in the crypt of the sacred edifice

WILTSHIRE WEDDING.

Mr George Hartigan and Miss Sherbrooke.

Miss Elizabeth Sherbrooke, the only daughter of the late Mr Cuthbert A. Sherbrooke, and of Mrs Sherbrooke, of Ogbourne Maisey, Marlborough, Wiltshire, was married on Monday last, 22nd October, to Mr George F. X. Hartigan, youngest son of the late Dr J. T. Hartigan, and of Mrs Hartigan, of Croom, County Limerick. The ceremony took place at the Catholic Church of St. George and St. Patrick, Ogbourne Maisey, Father Louis Valluet officiating.

The bride wore a pearl embroidered dress of white velvet and a veil of old lace, and carried a sheaf of white lilies. She was given away by her brother, Mr David Sherbrooke, and was attended by eight bridesmaids—Miss Bridget Hancock, Miss Betty Cooke, Miss Velia Hartigan, Miss Maggie Power, Miss Shelia Lunt, Miss Shelia O'Malley, Miss Ann O'Malley, and Miss Frances Hartigan. With dresses of apricot coloured chiffon, the maids wore wreaths of coloured beech leaves, and carried sheaves of bronze chrysanthemums. The bridegroom gave them Cornelian necklaces. Mr M. G. Hartigan, the bridegroom's brother, was best man.

After the reception, which was held at Ogbourne Maisey, the bride and bridegroom left for Paris en route for Rome.

as Minister of First Armagh.

The Bishop of Limerick, in his reply, referred to the rapid strides which had taken place towards the re-union of the Churches, and spoke of the great Conference at Lausanne. Rev Wm. Corrigan and Pastor Pearse also spoke.

Mr Joseph J. Dodds, solicitor, on behalf of the Limerick congregation, presented Rev Mr Neill with a wallet and cheque, and Mrs Bartnett on their behalf also presented Mrs Neill with a handsome silver coffee service.

Mr and Mrs Neill suitably replied.

The Moderator and the Rev. T. Byers replied to a vote of thanks to the Moderator and Synod, and the proceedings closed with the Doxology.

During the evening Mr H. Pieterek played a violin solo, and Miss Erica King sang, both contributing much to the pleasure of a most enjoyable evening.

A sumptuous tea, kindly provided by the lady members of the congregation, was partaken of by the guests at the opening of the social meeting.

Further report in our next.

DEATH OF MRS G HARE.

We regret to announce the death of Mrs Anna Hare, relict of the late Mr George Hare, a well-known and popular citizen, which took place at an early hour on Friday morning at her residence, 5 Ballinacurra Terrace. Deceased, who had been in failing health for some time past, was held in high regard for her ever-kindly and retiring disposition, and in Ballinacurra especially, where she resided for very many years, there is deep regret at her demise. The sympathy of a wide circle of friends in Limerick and Clare is extended to her bereaved family on the loss of a loving mother. The funeral, which took place this afternoon from St. Michael's Catholic Church to Mount St. Laurence Cemetery, was large and representative.

The clergy present were—Father Thornhill, C.C., and Father Moriarty, C.C.; Father McGrath, C.C., and Father Aidan, O.F.M.

The chief mourners were—Gerald, Vincent, and Thomas, sons; Aidan and Mrs McBride, daughters; B. McBride, son-in-law; Mrs Gerard Hare, daughter-in-law, and Mrs McGrath, sister-in-law; Dr James Roberts, George Roberts, and P. J. Flanagan, relatives; Jack and Jim Hare, nephews.
