After matters of detail relative to organization had been considered, the Committee discussed the best method of augmenting membership, and then adjourned.

FUNERAL OF MRS P. QUILLIGAN.

The funeral of Mrs Quilligan, mother of Mr J. J. Quilligan, Secretary of the City Home and Hospital, took place on Wednesday last, from St. Mary's Parochial Church to Mount St Laurence Cemetery. The cortege was very large and representative. It included the Mayor, members of the Corporation, the medical profession, and general public.

The chief mourners were:—Patrick Quilligan (husband); J. J. Quilligan, Secretary City Home; Michael, Patrick, James, Thomas, and Christopher Quilligan (sons); Anne Quilligan and Mrs Mary Storan (daughters), Mr T. Storan (son-in-law), Mrs J. Quilligan (daughter-in-law), John and David O'Keeffe (cousins).

The officiating clergy were:—Rev Fr. Hannan, P.P., St. Mary's; Rev Fr. Ray, P.P., Fedamore; Rev Jas O'Carroll, C.C., St. John's; Rev Hugh O'Connor, C.C., and Rev Joseph O'Regan, C.C., St. Mary's, Rev Fr. Hannan, P.P., officiated at the graveside.

At the Whole House Committee of the Corporation a vote of sympathy with Mr J. J. Quilligan was moved by Alderman O'Flynn, supported by the Mayor, and passed in silence, all members standing.

At the meeting of the City Home and Hospital Board on Thursday evening, Mr P. Bourke, B.C., presiding,

Alderman Reidy proposed that the deepest sympathy of the Committee be tendered to their Secretary on the death of his mother. It had been a great shock to the Secretary, and the members deeply regretted his bereavement.

Mr Gilligan seconded, and the vote was spoken to by the other members present.

Dr. Humphreys and Mr Barry desired to be associated with the vote, which was passed in silence.

Mr Quilligan, on behalf of himself and family, thanked the members for their expression of condolence, which, he said, they would all deeply appreciate.
