Mr T. O'B. Kelly, solicitor for the defen- dant, said if there was an error it was of a trivial character. Miss Bowles was fifteen years in business, and had never a conviction recorded against her.

A fine of ten shillings was imposed.

Michael Slattery was similarly fined for a like offence on the 27th December, when, according to the evidence of Guard Mason, the premises were "wide open."

FUNERAL OF MR R. RAY.

The funeral of Mr Richard Ray, Derravoher, took place yesterday forenoon after Requiem Mass at St. Michael's parochial church to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery. The cortege was large and representative. It was a fitting testimony to the high esteem in which the deceased gentleman, who for a long span of years was prominently identified with the commercial life of the city, was held by the citizens, and of the deep sympathy with his family and relatives in their bereavement.

The chief mourners were—Messrs James M. Ray (son), Thomas Ray, Thomas Daly (nephews), Doctor Francis O'Mara, Ennis (brother-in-law), James O'Mara, Dublin; Rev. Father O'Mara, S.J.; Stephen O'Mara, James O'Mara, John O'Mara, Power O'Mara, Francis O'Mara (nephews), Doctor O'Sullivan, Limerick; Doctor O'Sullivan, Killarney; W. DeCoursey, C. Ebrill, solicitor; W. Ebrill (relatives).

The clergy present were—Very Rev. Canon O'Dwyer, P.P., V.F., St. Munchin's; Rev Fr. Halpin, C.C., do; Rev Fr. Mortell, do; Rev Fr. O'Reilly, S.J.; Rev Fr. Kiernan, C.S.S.R., and Rev Fr. McMahon, C.S.S.R.

Amongst the general public were—Messrs Arthur McNeice, William Riordan, James Murray, John Gould, Patrick Gould, John Benson, John McNeice, Stephen Hanrahan, James J Halpin, Dublin; John J O'Toole, P. E. O'Donnell, solicitor; E Lloyd, R DeCoursey, W M Nolan, Town Clerk; N Gaffney, solr; M Joyce, J J, Johnson, M P O'Riordan, P McMahon, T Kelly, T Galvin, etc.
