

However it was not given Press.

Bourke—We have nothing us put everything fair and e public.

suggested that the report e given for publication.

Flynn said he had the report and he gathered from it that cious statements which re- g. From the questions put bers of the Committee it aid it with all due deference, s showed extreme ignorance (re valuation.

That is the reason, Alder- ommittee was appointed to tter. Some of them came to meetings perfectly ignorant Flynn considered that some its advanced in the report red before it was published, nove from the public mind ading statements.

I will not accept that view. sition of outside impression, ie meeting is in favour of report as it stands. Some enitently ignorant on this want to say now that the l typing of this document bly done by the responsible aid the preparation of the dit to the officials.

reed with the suggestion to to the Press for publication. f publication was to dissipate evailing on re-valuation, and the question had succeeded Brien supported the proposal f the document.

Flynn said the arguments me tax as affected by re- grossly misleading, and llowed to go to the public iswered. There was a refer- "A" and "D," supplied by a cial to the committee, and it It was an illegal statement, nislending the citizens.

Brien enquired if it was the e Council to defray the cost the report.

We invite publicity in the it is given in full.

nnellan—You cannot place any newspaper. This is a ment, and I think it should y the Council as a recom- the special committee.

edy—There is no recom- the Committee.

price on a flat rate basis worked out at £320 per house. This the Committee regarded as a good bargain both for the purchasers and Corporation, and assent was given to the sale. On the same site, which was acquired by the Corporation a few years ago, sixteen more houses are to be built by the Commercial Utility Society, and when the whole site is built on the Corporation will have ahead rent of £400 a year.

DEATH OF MRS ELLEN O'CALLAGHAN.

We regret to announce the death of Mrs E. O'Callaghan, widow of Mr Edward Hackett O'Callaghan, a well-known citizen of Limerick, which occurred yesterday at Milford House, Limerick. The deceased lady was highly esteemed and respected, and numerous friends sympathise with the family in their bereavement. Funeral arrangements appear in the obituary notice.

At the meeting of the Corporation Public Health Committee last night, Alderman O'Flynn paid a graceful tribute to the memory of the deceased lady, and proposed that the sympathy of the Committee be extended to her son, Mr Daniel O'Callaghan, solr, and other members of her family in their bereavement. The resolution was passed in silence.

ACCIDENTS.

Edward Nolan, a carpenter, stated to be a native of Kilkenny, while working on the weir at the Shannon Scheme Works, O'Briensbridge, last evening, fell off a ladder to the ground, a distance of some thirty feet, and received rather serious injuries. He was conveyed by the Corporation Fire Brigade Ambulance to St. John's Hospital, where eight stitches were put in his head, and it was found also that his right thigh was injured. He was detained.

A man named Henry Gleeson, of Mary street, was engaged loading a waggon at the Railway Station last evening, when he got caught between the waggon and the shafts of the car, and injured in the back. He was conveyed by the ambulance to Barrington's Hospital.

A hackney car driver named Martin Higgins, Arthur's Quay, while driving from the Ennis Road direction on Tuesday night was run into by a motor car. In the impact the hackney car was virtually wrecked, and the driver sustained a fractured arm and other injuries, which necessitated his removal to hospital. His fare was thrown on the road, but escaped injury, as did the horse.

GRAND CENTRAL.

Shields bus were injured, when, vehicle had crashed into a level gates near Heworth late last number of colliery trucks, drawn rope, ran into the wreckage.

The bus burst into flames, but passengers were pulled out. Five p are detained in Newcastle Infirmar

LONDON NIGHT CLUB

Further Hearing of Br Charges.

Chief Inspector's Evid

Upon the resumption at the O to-day of the trial of ex-Sergean Goddard, Mrs Kate Evelyn Mey Luigi Achille Ribuffi on charges o police bribery, Chief Inspector Cooper said C safe at the Pall Mall Deposit wa bank notes, some of which had be as coming from Ribuffi, and Mrs Goddard said he would plead guil a disciplinary board. He would r to penal servitude than say a although he could. Later Godd dismissed the force. When the war read he replied he had a perfect a the charge. Ribuffi said he had n Goddard or given him money. Mrs made no reply.

It was elicited in cross-examina Goddard had stated he was a total and that motoring was his only pas

The case for the prosecution c and counsel then submitted there evidence of conspiracy against Mrs The Judge overruled this.

Counsel for Goddard said his clie six thousand pounds when associa a music publisher, and also four five hundred out of Wembly Rock, he was interested.

Goddard, giving evidence, said fr t last October he made abou thousand or eight thousand po betting.

THE PRINCE TO GO TO 1