

It is to be shown in rural the country, probably in ning into operation of the ty scheme. It is suggested ight be usefully introduced by the Minister of Agri- w of the working of the ie. There is no doubt it very useful and practical rating the manifold applica- power to the purposes of . It is a very interesting more light is thrown on it ing regard to the growing land in electricity under- ch, it may be taken for sh Free State has given the

NT COMMENT.

Fishing Season.

g on the Shannon opens to- e prospects, it is learned, are ticularly good season. Pro- the past few months has carried out by the Fishery vators, under their Inspector In the upper reaches of the every indication of capital s, and a big influx of cross- is anticipated. The pre- Castleconnell, Doonass, and e all been let for the season.

Appliances.

for replacing the existing liances at the Fire Station consideration by the Cor- rather inordinate length of anything being done. In a lation of Limerick, with its v, delay in furnishing the most modern apparatus for reaks of fire should not be is to be hoped that the Cor- edite the purchase of new w pe, as well as an up- to . At last night's meeting de Committee some advance structure, which everyone hopes will be pre served as an historical national landmark.

DIOCESE OF LIMERICK.

Clerical Appointments.

The Rev. A. E. Hewetson-Jones, M.A., Rector of St. Munchin's, has been appointed Private Chaplain to the Lord Bishop, in succession to the Dean-designate of Lime- rick; and the Rev. G. F. Hamilton, M.A., Rector of Ballingarry, has been appointed Examining Chaplain.

THE LATE MR. R. RAY.

The Executive Committee of the Citizens' and Ratepayers' Society, at a meeting held on Tuesday night, tendered to Mr James Ray (vice-president) its deep expression of regret on the death of his father, the late Mr Richard Ray, managing director of the firm of Messrs. O'Mara, Ltd., and a promi- nent and respected citizen. The Society, the resolution added, had always a staunch supporter in the late Mr Ray, who was always willing to help in any movement for the betterment of the city and country.

"ANCIENT ATHENS."

It will be seen by advertisement that Professor Porter, of the University College, Cork, will deliver, at the P.Y.M.A., 97 O'Connell-street, to-morrow evening, an illustrated lecture on "Ancient Athens." He is a recognised authority on a most interesting subject, and there should be a large attendance. There will be a collection, but admission is free.

DOCKS DROWNING ACCIDENT.

The Limerick Dockers' Section of the Irish Transport and General Workers' Union passed a resolution tendering deep sympathy with the widow and family of Stephen McDonnell, who was drowned at the Docks on Monday last under very sad circum- stances - It was decided that all members would refrain from work yesterday (Wednes- day), when the funeral, which was of very large proportions, took place. Deceased was 25 years a member of the section.

IRELAND v. ENGLAND.

Great Southern Railways Excursion.

In the Great Southern Railways advertise- ment published in Tuesday's issue of the "Chronicle," re excursion arrangements for the Ireland v. England match to be played Alderman Bourke said even if had to pay some little extra to loss, they were prepared to pay did not see how there could be a It was stated in the discussion was no necessity for employing herdsman.

It was agreed to adjourn the m fortnight, Mr Clancy to be furn particulars as to the loss of £25 a

CORKANREE EMBANK REPAIRS.

Question of Bonus

A proposal to allow a bonus t man employed in connection wit- tensive repairs recently carried Corkanree embankment, which w in two places by the heavy fl October, 1927, came before the Imj Committee last night.

The Law Agent pointed out tha of such a nature would be liable to unless with the sanction of the Loc- ment Department.

The City Surveyor stated that was carried through for £10,428 labour, or £6,284 below the lowes tender figure.

A proposal was made by Mr seconded by Mr J. Hickey, to gra of £120, to be divided amongst al employed on the embankment.

Mr P. Bourke considered that effected should be devoted to home for the city poor, in view of the the Health Board required £3,500 to the end of the financial year. had notified the Board that day would only give an overdraft of £ home assistance purposes.

The City Surveyor said there w sum as £6,000 available on the c of the repairs to the embankment.

The voting being equal, the n through.

COUNTY LOUTH TRAC

Young Bride Found Shot

Within a few hours after she married a young woman, Mrs Kerley, was found shot dead in her home in the County Louth early morning. Her husband, James farmer, has been arrested and cha the murder.

MOTOR PARKING REGULA