CURRENT COMMENT.

Office Parsimony.

ie parsimonious policy of the Post Office orities in the matter of providing facilifor the public has become notorious in part of the country. In Limerick policy, or, to be accurate, want of y, has been commented on fre-tly, but bears repetition. For time past the citizens have treated to another sample of separating at the expense of efficiency and atch. In the public office during cerhours of the forenoon when business is pressing the number of counter officials been reduced by one. Two now to do what it took three, and four, to do some years ago. This unfair to the public and unjust to officials. It is bad enough to have ours of service curtailed, but there can no excuse or justification for reducing counter staff. It results in delay, not igh the fault of the over-worked officials, through the niggardly action of the orities, who think any service good gh for the taxpayer, until his patience ocility are overtaxed

Nestor's Annual Summer Sale now prog. Genuine reductions in all departments.

11th inst., in aid of repainting of Churches Fund. In addition to various stalls, list of which will be found in advertisement appearing in another column, an attractive programme of games and amusements has been arranged. A novel feature will be a fancy dress donkey parade, for which prizes are being offered for the most original and amusing costumes. Half-hour concerts will be held, in which well-known artistes will take part.

GRAND CENTRAL.

On Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday next an entirely original production, entitled "Nemesis," will be produced at the Grand Central. It contains many novel features, including grasshoppers dancing to the accompaniment of a grasshopper jazz band. A brilliant caste is featured.

For the remainder of the week "The Blue Peter," adapted from the play by E. Temple Thurston, and featuring Matheson Lang, will be filmed.

 as the Irish Amusement Co., and Michael Byrne, an employe, were returned for trial on bail at Ennis, charged with the manslaughter of Patrick Russell (19), Clare-thrown from a swing boat, owing to the breaking of a swivel.

DEATH OF MRS ANNE SHORT.

 the death which occurred at her residence of Mrs Anne Short, mother of Mr J. Short, a very courteous official, who for many years has been a fitter in the employment of the and there is deep sympathy with the members of the family in their bereavement.
