THE EARL OF MEATH

Dangerously Ill

The Earl of Meath is lying dangerously ill at his town house, 40 Eaton-square, London, and it was stated late last night that the invalid had passed a restless day, and his condition had not improved.

The Earl of Meath, who is in his eighty-eighth year, had a stroke last Saturday, and at such an advanced age his condition must cause grave anxiety.

His heir is Lord Ardee, who married, in 1908, Lady Aileen Wyndham-Quin, daughter of the late Earl of Dunraven. Lord Meath's Irish seat is Kilruddery, Bray.

IRISH DAIRY SHORTHORN BREEDERS' SOCIETY.

Autumn Sale at Mr Fitt's Paddocks.

The third annual Autumn Sale of Purebred and Registered Dairy Stock under the auspices of the Co. Limerick Branch of the Irish Dairy Shorthorn Breeders' Society was held to day at the Paddocks by Mr Wm B.
Fitt, Auctioneer. There was a large attendance, and bidding was brisk. Seventy-eight lots figured on the catalogue. Particulars in our Saturday issue.

FASHIONABLE INTELLIGENCE.

Latest colourings in Overcoatings and Riding Breeches can be had from Thos. Donovan, 29 O'Connell Street. No garment is so severely tested in wear as an Overcoat or Riding Breeches.
Place your order, therefore, with the Tailor who will have them made to stand the severest test.

DEATH OF MR M. O'T. HARTIGAN.

The death occurred on Sunday at his residence, The Rookery, Manister, Croom, of Mr M. O'T. Hartigan at an advanced age.
He was a well-known and popular county resident, and for many years represented the Rathmore division on the Croom District Council.

SWALLOWS DEPART.

What is believed to be a congregation of swallows of the last flight of birds on their departure to Africa was observed near Castletown Bere on Friday, October 4th.
These birds were gone on the 5th. Except for a few stragglers it is thought, these fly catching migrants have now departed to Africa.
