DEATH OF MR. JOHN J. SCANLAN.

We regret to record the death of a highly esteemed citizen, Mr John J. Scanlan, which took place at his residence, "Laurelhurst," O'Connell Avenue, last Saturday afternoon. He had been in failing health for some time, but his demise was unexpected. Mr Scanlan, who was a native of Killseragh, Kilkeo, was for very many years traveller for Messrs. Wm. Lloyd, spirit merchants, Limerick. He was widely known and highly esteemed in the South of Ireland. He was of a most kindly and courteous disposition, and an excellent business man. He was father of the Rev. John B. Scanlan, C.S.S.R. Deep sympathy by a wide circle of friends is extended to the relatives of the deceased gentleman in their hour of trial.

After Requiem High Mass at St. Michael's Catholic Church yesterday, the funeral left for Mount St. Laurence Cemetery. The cortege was representative of the business interests of the city, and numerous houses had their blinds drawn as a mark of respect.

The clergy present were—Rev. Fathers McCurtin, S J., Cooper, Moriarty, Thornhill, Adm, Kelly, McLoughlin, C.S.S.R., Murray, C.S.S.R., Jerome, O.F.M., Fitzpatrick, and Harty.

The chief mourners were—Patrick and Thomas Scanlan (sons), May Scanlan (daughter), Owen Scanlan (brother), Mrs Mescall (sister), D. Toomey (brother-in-law), Mrs B. Molony (sister-in-law), Mrs E. B. Duggan, Miss M. Hynes, Miss D. Scanlan, Miss N. Toomey, Miss T. Mescall (nieces), Messrs J. Toomey, P. Toomey, Tom and D. Toomey, D. and M. Molony, K. and M. Duggan, E. B. Duggan, J. Kennelly, and J. Slattery (relatives).
